Interpretation

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations replace the National Assistance (Charges for Accommodation) (Scotland) Regulations 1979. They prescribe an increased minimum weekly amount which a person is required to pay for accommodation provided for him under the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968 (which by virtue of section 87(3) of that Act is to be regarded for purposes of charges as accommodation provided under Part III of the National Assistance Act 1948) and increased minimum weekly amounts required to be paid for that accommodation in respect of a child accompanying such a person according to whether the child is under the age of 11 or between the ages of 11 and 16. The Regulations also increase the weekly sum which, in assessing a person's liability to pay for such accommodation, a local authority is, in the absence of special circumstances, to assume will be needed for personal requirements.
