EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

In order to qualify for compensation on loss of employment or diminution of emoluments under the National Assistance (Compensation) Regulations, 1948, an officer must have served in certain prescribed employments for a defined period. These regulations enable an officer to include in the defined period national service following any such prescribed employment, and thus rectify an inadvertent omission from the original regulations.
