1959 No. 748

The National Health Service (Designation of Teaching Hospitals) Order, 1959

Made - - - - 21*st April*, 1959
Coming into Operation 1*st May*, 1959

The Minister of Health, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 11 and 75 of the National Health Service Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf and after consultation with the universities concerned, hereby orders as follows:—

1.—(1) This order may be cited as the National Health Service (Designation of Teaching Hospitals) Order, 1959, and shall come into operation on the first day of May, 1959.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) References in any other regulations or order to the orders revoked by this order shall be construed as references to this order or to the corresponding provisions thereof, as the case may be.

2. Each of the hospitals or groups of hospitals which was designated as a teaching hospital by the National Health Service (Designation of Teaching Hospitals (No. 1)) Order, 1948(c), as amended(d), and is set out in the second column of the first schedule hereto shall, subject to the provisions of this order, continue to be designated as a teaching hospital and to be known by the name inserted opposite, in the first column of the said schedule.

3. The orders named in the second schedule to this order are hereby revoked:

Provided that:—

(a) such revocation shall not affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred, or anything duly done or suffered, under those orders or any arrangements having effect by virtue thereof; and

(b) any right to compensation, under any such order, of an officer of a Regional Hospital Board or Board of Governors of a teaching hospital who suffers loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments which is attributable to the making of such order, shall continue to subsist as if this order had not been made.
