Regulations 2 (1) (a), 2 (2), 2 (3), 2 (4), 2 (5) (a), 2 (6), 2 (8) and 2 (10) preserve the superannuation rights of officers who within a limited period after an approved course of study or training re-enter employment of an employing authority. The period allowed is twelve months after the end of the course or, if the course is followed by national service, six months from the end of the national service, or, if the course is preceded by a period of national service six months from the end of the course.

Regulation 2 (1) (c) amends the definition of " pensionable age " thereby enabling the Minister to extend the pensionable age of assistant practitioners.

Regulation 2 (5) (b) is an amendment consequential on the National Health Service (Superannuation) (Amendment) (No. 1) Regulations, 1952, made in draft by the Minister of Housing and Local Government and laid before Parliament with these Regulations.

Regulation 2 (9) (a) by amending the definition of " remuneration " makes sums payable by patients under section 2 of the National Health Service Act, 1952, reckonable as part of dentists' remuneration for superannuation purposes.

Regulation 2 (9) (b) excepts from the " remuneration " of a practitioner who is also employed as an established civil servant, or by a University, any moneys for which he must account to his employer in that employment.

Regulation 2 (9) (c) makes provision for safeguarding practitioners whose practices are carried on during their absence on national service but who receive from them less than they were receiving before they entered national service, and also for safeguarding those practitioners whose names are not on an Executive Council's list during their absence on national service.

Regulation 2 (9) (d) removes a defect in the existing regulations by providing that in relation to an assistant practitioner the practitioner employing him shall be treated as the employing authority for the purpose of collecting superannuation contributions but for no other purpose.

Provided that, where, with the approval of the Minister, the authority responsible for making the payment decides that the saving in time is so substantial as to justify payment of the fare for travel by air, there may be paid an amount not exceeding—

(a) the ordinary, or any available cheap fare for travel by regular air service; or

(b) where no such service is available or in case of urgency, the fare actually paid by the member.
