EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes the National Insurance Act 1966 (Commencement No. 3) Order 1971. That Order would have brought into force on 1st January 1972 for the purpose of flat-rate unemployment benefit the provisions of section 3(1) of the National Insurance Act 1966 which deal with days not to be treated as days of unemployment where employment is suspended. The subsection is already in force for the purpose of earnings-related supplement.
