SCHEDULE

REGULATION 11 OF THE PRINCIPAL REGULATIONS, AS AMENDED

Prescribed time for claiming benefit and disqualification where benefit not claimed within the prescribed time

11.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of section 27 of the Act (which subsection relates to retirement pension for a widow in receipt of widow's benefit), if a person fails to make a claim for any benefit within the prescribed time in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) of this regulation, he shall be disqualified for receiving —

(a) in the case of unemployment benefit or maternity grant or death grant, any benefit ; or

(b) in the case of sickness benefit,—

(i) where a notice of incapacity has been given in accordance with the provisions of regulation 15, payment in respect of any period more than ten days, or

(ii) where no such notice has been given, payment in respect of any period more than three days, before the date on which the claim is made ; or

(c) in the case of attendance allowance, payment in respect of any period more than twenty-eight days before the date on which the claim is made ; or

(d) in the case of maternity allowance, payment in respect of any period before the date on which the claim is made ; or

(e) in the case of a pension, payment in respect of any period more than three months before the date on which the claim is made :

Provided that, subject to the condition contained in paragraph (3) of this regulation, if in any case the claimant proves —

(i) that on a date earlier than the date on which the claim was made, apart from satisfying the condition of making a claim, he was entitled to the benefit ; and

(ii) that throughout the period between the earlier date and the date on which the claim was made there was good cause for delay in making such claim ;

he shall not be disqualified under this paragraph for receiving any benefit to which he would have been entitled if the claim had been made on the said earlier date.

(2) The prescribed time for the purposes of the foregoing paragraph shall (subject to the special provisions relating to the time for claiming benefit contained in Part IV of these regulations) be,—

(a) in the case of unemployment benefit (not being an increase of benefit in respect of a child or adult dependant), the day in respect of which the claim is made ; or

(b) in the case of sickness benefit (not being an increase of benefit in respect of a child or adult dependant),—

(i) where notice of incapacity has been given in accordance with the provisions of regulation 15, the period of ten days, or

(ii) where no such notice has been given, the period of three days, from the day in respect of which the claim is made ; or

(c) in the case of maternity grant, the period of three months from the date of the confinement ; or

(d) in the case of attendance allowance, the period of twenty-eight days from the date of the confinement ; or

(e) in the case of maternity allowance, the period up to the date on which, apart from satisfying the condition of making a claim, the claimant becomes entitled thereto ; or

(f) in the case of a pension, the period of three months from the date on which, apart from satisfying the said condition, the claimant becomes entitled thereto ; or

(g) in the case of death grant, the period of one month from the date of the death of the deceased, except in the case of a payment under subsection (5) of section 21 of the Act, in which case the period shall be twenty-one days from the date of the death, or such longer period as the Ministry may determine in the circumstances of any particular case ; or

(h) in the case of an increase, in respect of a child or adult dependant, of unemployment benefit or sickness benefit, the period of one month from the date on which, apart from satisfying the condition of making a claim, the claimant becomes entitled thereto, subject to the qualification that if, in the case of the benefit of which that increase is claimed, the prescribed time is extended in accordance with the proviso to this paragraph, the period of one month shall (subject to the condition contained in the next succeeding paragraph) be increased by a period equal to the period commencing on the said date and ending on the date on which the claim for the said benefit was made :

Provided that, subject to the condition contained in the next succeeding paragraph, if the claimant proves that there was good cause for the failure to make the claim before the date on which it was made, the prescribed time shall be extended to the date on which the claim is made.

(3) The proviso to either of the foregoing paragraphs of this regulation shall apply in any case subject to the condition that no sum shall be paid to any person on account of maternity grant in respect of a confinement occurring more than six months before the date on which the claim therefor is made in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, or on account of any other benefit in respect of any period more than six months before the date on which the claim therefor is so made.

(4) The provisions of the last preceding paragraph of this regulation shall apply to death grant as they apply to maternity grant with the substitution of death for confinement, and subject to the qualification that there shall be substituted for the period of six months specified in that paragraph in relation to maternity grant such longer period as the Ministry may in the circumstances of any particular case decide, where the failure to make a claim within the said period either is due to the fact that the claimant did not, and in all the circumstances could not reasonably be expected to, know of the death, or, in the case of a death occurring outside Northern Ireland, is due to the claimant's absence from Northern Ireland during the said period or to unavoidable delay in obtaining any information necessary for making a claim.
