The National Insurance (Classification) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 1518

Made - - - -	9th August, 1949
Laid before Parliament	9th August, 1949
Coming into Operation	15th August, 1949

M.N.I.177.

The Minister of National Insurance, in conjunction with the Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 1 of the National Insurance Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Classification) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1949, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Classification) Regulations, 1948(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations") as amended(c), and shall come into operation on the 15th August, 1949.

Amendments relating to employment in hop-picking

2. In Part II of the First Schedule to the principal regulations (which Part sets out, in column (A), employments in respect of which persons are treated as self-employed persons and, in column (B), the persons excepted from the operation of column (A)) and immediately after paragraph 16, there shall be added—

(a) in column (A) the following paragraph:—

"16A. Occasional employment by any one employer in the picking of hops"; and

(b) in column (B) the following paragraph:—

"16A. Any person who is ordinarily employed in agriculture (including horticulture and forestry)."

Dated this 9th day of August, 1949.

James Griffiths,
Minister of National Insurance.

Wm. Hannan,
Joseph Henderson,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Classification) Regulations, 1948, by including among the employments in respect of which persons are treated as self-employed persons occasional employment, by any one employer, in the picking of hops. Any person who is ordinarily employed in agriculture (including horticulture and forestry) is excepted from the operation of this provision.

M.N.I. 153.

The Minister of National Insurance, in exercise of powers conferred by section 2 (5) of the National Insurance Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Contributions) Amendment Regulations, 1949, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations, 1948(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations") and shall come into operation on the 28th June, 1949.

Amendment of regulation 7 of the principal regulations

2. At the end of sub-paragraph (c) (i) of paragraph (2) of regulation 7 of the principal regulations, there shall be added the following words:—

"and any such payment may be made at any time before the end of the fourth contribution year following the contribution year in which the education or apprenticeship terminated".

Dated this 23rd day of June, 1949.

James Griffiths,
Minister of National Insurance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide that a person may, in respect of full time education or full time unpaid apprenticeship after the age of eighteen years, pay contributions as a non-employed person under regulation 7 (2) (c) (i) of the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations, 1948, at any time within a period of approximately four to five years from the termination of the education or apprenticeship. The period varies slightly according to the circumstances of each case.

The preliminary draft of these Regulations was submitted to the National Insurance Advisory Committee in accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and their report thereon, dated the 31st May, 1949, is contained in House of Commons Paper No. 192 published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.
