EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the provisions of the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations, 1948, which provide that a person is not entitled to be excepted from liability for, or to be credited with, contributions for a period in respect of which he is unable to satisfy additional conditions for the receipt of unemployment benefit or sickness benefit imposed by regulations made under section 13 (4) of the National Insurance Act, 1946. The amendment has the effect of excepting from those provisions the additional condition for the receipt of unemployment benefit imposed on seasonal workers by regulation 2 of the National Insurance (Seasonal Workers) Regulations, 1950.

The report of the National Insurance Advisory Committee on the preliminary draft of these Regulations, dated the 24th April, 1962, is contained in the House of Commons Paper No. 200 (Session 1961-62) published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office.
