SOCIAL SECURITY

The National Insurance (Increase of Benefit and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1969

Made - - -	22nd September 1969
Laid before Parliament	1st October 1969
Coming into Operation	2nd October 1969

The National Insurance Joint Authority, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 45, 50 and 99 of the National Insurance Act 1965(a), and the Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of his powers under sections 10, 49 and Schedule 11 paragraphs 17 and 18 of that Act, and Schedule 6 of the National Insurance Act 1969(b), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, and in conjunction with the Treasury so far as relates to matters with regard to which the Treasury have so directed, hereby make the following regulations, which contain no provisions other than such as are made in consequence of the said Act of 1969 and which accordingly, by virtue of section 10(1) of that Act are exempt from the requirements of section 108 of the National Insurance Act 1965 (reference to the National Insurance Advisory Committee) :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Increase of Benefit and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1969, and shall come into operation on 2nd October 1969.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the principal Act" means the National Insurance Act 1965 ;

"the Act of 1969" means the National Insurance Act 1969 ;

and other expressions have the same meanings as in the principal Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment or regulation shall, except in so far as the context otherwise requires, be construed as references to that enactment or regulation as amended or extended by or under any other enactment, order or regulation.

(4) The rules for the construction of Acts of Parliament contained in the Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply for the purpose of the interpretation of these regulations as they apply for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(b) 1969 c. 44.
(c) 1889 c. 63.

Higher rates and amounts of benefit payable under regulations

2. Subject to the provisions of regulations 6 and 7 of these regulations, as from the dates specified in Schedule A column 1 of these regulations there shall be substituted for each of the Tables mentioned in column 2 thereof the Table mentioned in the Schedule set opposite thereto in column 3.

Higher amount of maternity grant

3. In any case where a woman has become entitled before 3rd November 1969 (hereafter in this regulation called "the appropriate date") to a maternity grant by virtue of the provisions of regulation 3 of the National Insurance (Maternity Benefit and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1954(a) (title to a maternity grant in respect of expectation of confinement), whether or not payment thereof shall have been made, the amount of the grant shall be increased to £25 if before the expiration of 3 months from the appropriate date (or such longer period, not exceeding 12 months, as the determining authority within the meaning of the said regulations may for good cause allow) she satisfies the said determining authority either that she was still pregnant on the appropriate date and that it is to be expected that she will be confined, or that she has been confined on or after the appropriate date.

Miscellaneous amendments relating to benefit and to contributions

4.—(1) As from the dates specified in Schedule J column 1 of these regulations, there shall in the regulations mentioned in column 2 thereof be made the amendments specified against those regulations mentioned in columns 3 and 4 thereof.

(2) As from 3rd November 1969, Schedule 2 to the National Insurance (New Entrants Transitional) Regulations 1949(b), as amended (c) (amounts payable, by way of refund of contributions, to persons entering insurance too late to be able to satisfy contribution conditions for widow's benefit or retirement pension), shall be amended by the addition thereto, at the end, of the provisions set out in Schedule K to these regulations.

Conditions relating to payment of additional benefit under awards made before the appointed or prescribed day

5. Where an award of any benefit under the principal Act has been made before the day appointed or prescribed for the payment of benefit of the description to which the award relates at a higher weekly rate by virtue of the Act of 1969 or of these regulations, Schedule 6 paragraphs 2 and 3 to that Act (effect of any such award) shall, if the period to which the award relates has not ended before that day, have effect subject to the following conditions :—

(1) If the award has not been made in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 3 (which sub-paragraph authorises the making of such an award providing for the payment of the benefit at the higher weekly rate as from that day) and a question arises as to—

(a) the weekly rate at which the benefit is payable by virtue of the Act of 1969 or of these regulations, or

(a) S.I. 1954/189 (1954 I, p. 1387). (b) S.I. 1949/352 (1949 I, p. 2737).
(c) As last amended by S.I. 1968/680 (1968 I, p. 1851).

(b) whether the conditions for the receipt of the benefit at the higher weekly rate are satisfied, the benefit shall be or continue to be payable at the weekly rate specified in the award until the said question shall have been determined in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of regulation 12, as amended (a), of the National Insurance (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1948(b) (extinguishment of the right to sums payable by way of benefit) the right to any sum which, by virtue of the said Schedule 6, paragraphs 2 and 3, becomes payable under the award by way of additional benefit shall, as respects the period beginning with that day and ending—

(a) in a case where a book of serial orders (as defined in regulation 1(2), as amended (c), of the said regulations) for the payment of benefit to which the award relates has been issued to the beneficiary and is current on that day, with the date of the expiration of that book ; or

be extinguished if payment thereof is not obtained within the period of 24 months (or such longer period as the Secretary of State for Social Services may determine in the circumstances of any particular case) from that day.

Persons not ordinarily resident in Great Britain

6.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of these or any other regulations, but subject to the provisions of this regulation, a person who is not ordinarily resident in Great Britain immediately before 3rd November 1969 (in this regulation referred to as "the said date") shall, unless and until that person becomes ordinarily resident in Great Britain, be disqualified for receiving—

(a) in the case of a woman who immediately before the said date is a married woman and had not retired from regular employment, any additional retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, if the husband before the said date had retired from regular employment and was not ordinarily resident in Great Britain ;

(b) in the case of a woman who immediately before the said date is a widow, any additional retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, if her husband had died before the said date ;

(c) in any other case, any additional retirement pension (not being additional retirement pension to which either of the two foregoing subparagraphs applies) if that person had retired from regular employment before the said date ;

(d) any additional widow's benefit if her husband had died or retired before the said date ;

(e) any additional child's special allowance if her former husband had died before the said date.

(2) Notwithstanding as aforesaid, if immediately before the said date a person is not ordinarily resident in Great Britain but that person has, or would, but for the absence of any child from Great Britain, have in his family immediately before the said date a child in relation to whom the conditions for guardian's allowance specified in section 29 of the principal Act are satisfied, that person and any other person who would otherwise be entitled to any additional guardian's allowance in respect of that child shall be disqualified for receiving any additional guardian's allowance in respect of that child unless and until the child becomes (or is) included in the family of a person who is ordinarily resident in Great Britain.

(a) As last amended by reg. 3 of S.I. 1969/289. (1969 I, p. 788.)
(b) S.I. 1948/1041 (Rev. XVI, p. 313: 1948 I, p. 2709).
(c) The only relevant amendment was made by S.I. 1952/1207 (1952 II, p. 2122).

(3) The disqualifications for the receipt of additional benefit contained in this regulation shall not apply to a person for any period during which he is in Great Britain.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation references to additional benefit of any description are to be construed as referring to additional benefit of that description by virtue (either directly or indirectly) of any provision of the Act of 1969 or of these regulations.

(5) A widow who—

(a) is not ordinarily resident in Great Britain immediately before the said date, and was entitled to widow's benefit immediately before attaining pensionable age, or who would, but for any provision of the principal Act disqualifying her for the receipt of such benefit have been so entitled ; and

(b) is or becomes entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance the right to which is calculated by taking into account under section 33 of the principal Act her husband's contributions ;

shall be disqualified for receiving any additional retirement pension the right to which is so calculated unless and until she becomes ordinarily resident in Great Britain if—

(i) her husband died before the said date ; or

(ii) if before the said date he had retired from regular employment and was not ordinarily resident in Great Britain.

(6) Subject to paragraph (9) of this regulation, any provision of the regulations specified in Schedule L to these regulations (being regulations made for purposes corresponding to the purposes of this regulation in relation to benefit or additional benefit under or by virtue of the enactments or regulations to which they relate) whereby—

(a) a person is disqualified for receiving, or is excluded from the operation of a provision entitling him to, benefit or additional benefit as therein mentioned or provided unless and until that person becomes resident in Great Britain ; or shall, as from the said date, have effect as if the reference therein to becoming or being resident in Great Britain were a reference to becoming or being ordinarily resident in Great Britain.

(b) a disqualification is imposed for the receipt of additional guardian's allowance in respect of a child unless and until the child becomes (or is) included in the family of a person who is resident in Great Britain ;

(7) The provisions of paragraph 3(1) of Part II of Schedule 6 to the Act of 1969 shall apply where, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this regulation, benefit of an amount higher than the amount awarded to a person has in fact been paid to him.

(8) The disqualification for the receipt of additional retirement pension contained in paragraph (1)(c) of this regulation shall not apply to a woman in relation to a retirement pension by virtue of her husband's insurance, if that husband had not retired from regular employment before the said date and either—

(i) he was her husband immediately before that date, or

(ii) she married him on or after that date.

(9) Paragraph (6) of this regulation shall not apply where, before the said date, the person had become resident in Great Britain or the child had become (or was) included in the family of a person who was resident in Great Britain and by reason thereof benefit or additional benefit has been awarded and paid.

Transitory provisions

7.—(1) As respects the period beginning on 3rd November 1969 and ending on 5th November 1969, the rate of a person's unemployment or sickness benefit for any day in the said period payable by virtue of section 19(3) of the principal Act (unemployment and sickness benefit for persons over pensionable age) shall be determined as if the day from which higher rates of retirement pension are payable by virtue of the foregoing provisions of these regulations were 6th November 1969.

(2) Regulation 2 of the Family Allowances, National Insurance and Industrial Injuries (Consequential) (No. 2) Regulations 1968(a) (continuation of existing rates of benefit) shall cease to have effect, save for the purpose of securing that a person who would continue to satisfy the requirements of that regulation shall not, by reason only of its ceasing to have effect, receive less in the aggregate by way of personal benefit, dependency benefit and family allowances than he was receiving immediately before these regulations come into operation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations are, by virtue of section 10(1)(a) of the National Insurance Act 1969, exempt from reference to the National Insurance Advisory Committee and no such reference has been made.

The Regulations increase the rates of benefit payable under certain regulations deemed by virtue of section 117 of the National Insurance Act 1965 to have been made under that Act in order to bring them into conformity with the higher rates of benefit payable under that Act by virtue of the Act of 1969.
