The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 1233

Made - - - -	9th July, 1951
Laid before Parliament	11th July, 1951
Coming into Operation	16th July, 1951

M.N.I./I.I.138.

The Industrial Injuries Joint Authority, in exercise of powers conferred by section 18 (3) of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations:—

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1951, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations, 1948(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations") as amended(c) and shall come into operation on the 16th July, 1951.

Amendment of regulation 7 of the principal regulations

2. At the end of paragraph (1) of regulation 7 of the principal regulations (which paragraph provides that a beneficiary shall not be entitled to an increase of benefit in respect of his wife for any period during which she is engaged in any gainful occupation from which her weekly earnings exceed twenty shillings) there shall be added the following proviso:—

"Provided that this paragraph shall, in relation to benefit payable for any period during which the beneficiary is residing with his wife and is incapable of self-support, have effect as if for the reference to twenty shillings there were substituted a reference to forty shillings."

Given under the official seal of the Industrial Injuries Joint Authority this 9th day of July, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

(L.S.)

T. C. Stephens,
Secretary,
Industrial Injuries Joint Authority.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations, 1948, by providing that in the case of a beneficiary who is incapable of self-support an increase of benefit may be paid in respect of his wife residing with him if her weekly earnings from any gainful occupation do not exceed forty shillings, instead of twenty shillings as formerly.
