EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations take the place of regulations 3 and 4 of the National Insurance (Seasonal Workers) Regulations, 1950, which they revoke and reproduce. They enable, in certain circumstances, contributions as a self-employed or non-employed person to be taken into account for the receipt of unemployment benefit in the case of seasonal workers for days of unemployment in periods when they are normally employed. They also revoke regulation 11 of the National Insurance (Unemployment Benefit) (Transitional) Regulations, 1948.

The relevant report, dated the 16th June, 1950, of the National Insurance Advisory Committee on the preliminary draft of the regulations is contained in the House of Commons Paper No. 14 published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.
