Injuries) (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations, 1948(a) (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations) as amended(b), and shall come into operation on the 24th March, 1954.

Review of assessments

2. The following regulation shall be inserted after regulation 6 of the principal regulations, and shall apply to cases in which a decision in connection with an application for review is given by a medical board on or after the date on which these regulations come into operation:—

"Period to be taken into account by assessments revised on the grounds of unforeseen aggravation

6A. On a review of any assessment under subsection (2) of section 40 of the Act (which subsection relates to reviews on the ground of unforeseen aggravation), the period to be taken into account by any revised assessment may include any period not exceeding three months before the date of the application for the review if the medical board are satisfied that throughout that period there has been an unforeseen aggravation of the results of the relevant injury since the making of the assessment under review."

Dated this 22nd day of March, 1954.

Osbert Peake,
Minister of Pensions and National Insurance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which exercise powers conferred under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1953, authorise medical boards, in revising assessments on the ground of unforeseen aggravation, to include in the period taken into account by the revised assessment a period not exceeding three months before the application for review.

EXTENSIONS OF INSURANCE

1954 No. 923

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Mariners) Amendment Regulations, 1954

Laid before Parliament in draft

Made - - - - 6th July, 1954

Coming into Operation 9th August, 1954

Whereas a draft of the following regulations was laid before Parliament and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament:

Now, therefore, the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance, in exercise of powers conferred by section 77 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(c), hereby makes the said regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Mariners) Amendment Regulations, 1954, shall be read

(a) S.I. 1948/1299 (Rev. XVI, p. 524: 1948 I, p. 2971).
(b) See regulation 5, S.I. 1953/1227 (1953 I, p. 1419).
(c) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 62.

as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Mariners) Regulations, 1948(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations") as amended(b), and shall come into operation on the 9th August, 1954.

Amendment of the principal regulations

2.—(1) In paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the principal regulations (which paragraph contains definitions), for the words "paragraphs 2, 3 and 4" in the definition of "mariner" there shall be substituted the words "paragraphs 2, 2A, 3 and 4".

(2) For paragraph (2) of regulation 2 of the principal regulations, as amended(c), (which relates to insurability of non-domiciled mariners), there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(2) A mariner who is ordinarily resident in a country included in the Schedule to these regulations shall not be excepted from insurance under the provisions of the last foregoing paragraph if either—

(a) he is employed in employment under a contract of service as master or a member of the crew of any ship or vessel within sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2 of Part I of the First Schedule to the Act, and that employment is neither employment under a British whaling contract nor employment in respect of which there is in force a certificate of exception issued in accordance with paragraph (2A) of this regulation; or

(b) he is employed in employment under a contract to act as master or a member of the crew of such of the ships or vessels of a particular owner or owners as may be determined in accordance with the contract, and the employment would be included in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph in the case of each ship or vessel, if the contract related to it alone."

Application of Part III of the principal regulations to further classes of mariners

3. Part III of the principal regulations, (which relates to benefit) shall, in its application to a person insured as a mariner by virtue of employment within paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section 1 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1953(d) (which subsection relates to employment under a contract to act as master or member of the crew of such of the ships or vessels of a particular owner as may be determined in accordance with the contract) or by virtue of employment as a radio officer within paragraph 2A of Part I of the First Schedule to the Act(e) (which paragraph relates to the insurability of radio officers whilst not serving on board a ship or vessel) have effect as if that person were insured as a mariner by virtue of employment as master or a member of the crew of any ship or vessel to which paragraph (2) of Part I of the said First Schedule applies.

(d) 1 & 2 Eliz. 2. c. 43.
(e) Inserted by section 1 (4), National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1953 (1 & 2 Eliz. 2. c. 43).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations make certain amendments to the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Mariners) Regulations, 1948, consequential on the amendment of the provisions relating to mariners in the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946, which were effected by the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1953. They bring the definition in the Regulations into line with the amended definition in the Act and apply the special provisions relating to payment of benefit in the case of mariners to certain of the mariners newly brought into insurance under the Act. They also deal with the position of persons in the new classes of mariners who are not domiciled in the United Kingdom, but are ordinarily resident in one of the countries listed in the Schedule to the 1948 Regulations.

1954 No. 782

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Mariners (Insurability) Regulations, 1954

Made - - - -	14*th June*, 1954
Laid before Parliament	17*th June*, 1954
Coming into Operation	9*th August*, 1954

The Industrial Injuries Joint Authority, in exercise of powers conferred by the First Schedule to the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(a), and the Minister of Pensions and National Insurance, in exercise of powers conferred by subsection (1) of section 80 of that Act, subsection (1) of section 1 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1953(b), and by the said First Schedule as amended by the last-mentioned Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Mariners (Insurability) Regulations, 1954, and shall come into operation on the 9th August, 1954.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

" the Act " means the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946 ;

" the insurable employments Schedule " means Part I of the First Schedule to the Act ;

" manager " and " owner " have, in relation to a ship or vessel, the same meaning as in paragraph 2 of the insurable employments Schedule ;

and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment shall include references to such enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c) applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 62. (b) 1 & 2 Eliz. 2. c. 43. (c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
