Insurance condition.

6. Except in relation to regulation 5, there shall be substituted for the condition contained in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of the said section 19 that one at least of the parents of the child was an insured person, the condition that the person or, as the case may be, one at least of the persons to whom the appropriate substituted condition contained in these regulations is applicable, was an insured person.

Special saving.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the parent or the step-parent of a child shall not be entitled to a guardian's allowance in respect of that child.

Revocation of provisional regulations.

8. The National Insurance (Guardian's Allowances) Provisional Regulations, 1948(a), are hereby revoked but without prejudice to anything duly done or suffered, or to any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred, thereunder.

Given under the official seal of the National Insurance Joint Authority this 13th day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-eight.

(L.S.) S. S. Menneer,
Secretary,
National Insurance Joint Authority.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide for modifications of the conditions for guardian's allowance in relation to adopted and illegitimate children, and children whose parents have been divorced or cannot be traced.

The preliminary draft of these Regulations was submitted to the National Insurance Advisory Committee in accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and their report thereon, dated the 21st October, 1948, is contained in the House of Commons Paper No. 32, published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.

10. LOCAL ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The National Insurance (Local Advisory Committees) Regulations, 1948

1948 No. 1741

Made - - - -	26th July, 1948
Laid before Parliament	27th July, 1948
Coming into Operation	30th July, 1948

M.N.I.101.

The Minister of National Insurance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 42 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and of all other 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 67.

(a) S.I. 1948 No. 1358.

powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation.

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Local Advisory Committees) Regulations, 1948, and shall come into operation on the 30th July, 1948.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

" the Act " means the National Insurance Act, 1946;

" the Minister " means the Minister of National Insurance; and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) References in these regulations to any enactment shall include references to such enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment, order or regulations.

52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(4) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Constitution and functions of committees.

2.—(1) Local advisory committees (hereinafter referred to as " committees ") shall be established by the Minister for the whole of Great Britain for the purpose of considering and advising him upon such questions bearing upon the administration of the Act as he may from time to time refer to them, and each committee shall act for such area as he shall think fit.

(2) For the purpose of facilitating any such reference, any committee may bring to the notice of the Minister any special problem bearing upon the administration of the Act which arises from local conditions.

(3) The committees shall consist of such persons representing employers and such persons representing insured persons as the Minister shall see fit to appoint, and the persons so appointed may include persons put forward by organisations concerned with the interests of employers or insured persons, including friendly societies or organisations representative of friendly societies.

Chairman and casting vote.

3.—(1) The Minister shall appoint one member of each committee to be chairman thereof, and, if the members of the committee present at a meeting are equally divided upon a question, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(2) If at any meeting of a committee the chairman is not present, the members of the committee present shall thereupon elect one of their number to act as chairman for that meeting.

Period of office.

4. The members of a committee shall remain in office for three years, except where the Minister otherwise directs in any particular case:

Provided that any person appointed to fill a vacancy upon a committee shall not hold office after the termination of the period during which the person in whose place he is appointed would have held office.

Views of dissenting members to be recorded.

5. If any member present at a meeting of a committee dissents from a resolution passed by a majority of the committee at that meeting, he shall have the right to have his views recorded, and it shall be the duty of the chairman to send the record of the views of such dissenting member, together with a copy of the resolution, to the Minister.

Procedure.

6. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, the procedure of any committee shall be such as is determined from time to time by the Minister, or by the committee with the consent of the Minister.

7. The Minister may pay to the members of any committee, and to persons attending its meetings at the request of the committee, such expenses and travelling and other allowances (including compensation for loss of remunerative time) as the Minister, with the consent of the Treasury, shall determine. Expenses, etc., of members of committees.

Dated this 26th day of July, 1948.

James Griffiths,
Minister of National Insurance.
