(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations, which are made in consequence of the National Insurance (No. 2) Act (Northern Ireland), 1957, amend the National Insurance (Mariners) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948. They reduce from three-fifths to one-half the proportion of the ordinary employer's contributions which is payable in respect of mariners employed as masters or members of crews who neither are domiciled nor have a place of residence in the United Kingdom. They also increase the reduction, which was authorised by those regulations, in the weekly rate of employer's contributions payable in respect of mariners employed as masters or members of crews of foreign-going ships.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the National Insurance (Mariners) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948, by extending the provisions of those regulations, which make exceptions from disqualification for receipt of unemployment and sickness benefit by reason of absence from Northern Ireland, and by applying those provisions to certain persons who travel to commence employment as mariners abroad. They provide that the provisions of those regulations which suspend payment of benefit to mariners while absent from Northern Ireland shall cease to have effect. The remaining alterations are of a minor and consequential character.
