EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations revoke and replace the National Insurance (Medical Certification) Amendment Provisional Regulations, 1949. They amend the National Insurance (Medical Certification) Regulations, 1948, by extending the intervals of time at which a medical certificate in the form of a Special Intermediate Certificate may be given in any case of prolonged incapacity and by enabling such a certificate to be given even though the claimant is being examined or treated by the doctor at more frequent intervals.

The preliminary draft of these Regulations was submitted to the National Insurance Advisory Committee in accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and their report thereon, dated the 28th September, 1949, is contained in House of Commons Paper No. 264 published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.
