The National Insurance (Modification of Teachers Superannuation) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 1966

Made - - -	23rd September 1966
Laid before Parliament	29th September 1966
Coming into Operation	5th October 1966

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section 110 of the National Insurance Act 1965(a), having been determined by the Treasury to be the appropriate Minister of the Crown for the purpose, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Modification of Teachers Superannuation) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 1966, and shall come into operation on 5th October 1966.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply for the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. For regulation 2(1) (d) of the National Insurance (Modification of Teachers Superannuation) (Scotland) Regulations 1963(c) there shall be substituted:—

"(d) 'participating employment' means any employment which is not a non-participating employment within the meaning of section 56(1) of the National Insurance Act 1965."

William Ross,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
23rd September 1966.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations amend the definition of "participating employment" which is contained in the National Insurance (Modification of Teachers Superannuation) (Scotland) Regulations 1963 which were made following the passing of the National Insurance Act 1963. This is a technical amendment to ensure that the definition of "participating employment" in the regulations has the same meaning as in the National Insurance Act 1965. This is necessary because from the operative date teachers will earn a small amount of graduated National Insurance pension in respect of their contributions under the Earnings-Related Benefits Scheme which was introduced under the National Insurance Act 1966.
