5. Where any widow's, children's, or dependants' pension becomes payable under Part 1 or Part 2 of the Act in respect of an officer, the proviso to Section 1 of the Isle of Man (Officers) Act, 1876 (which requires the Treasury to determine the portion of every allowance and pension payable pursuant to that Act which is payable on account of service in a permanent office in the civil service of the Isle of Man, and for the portion so determined to be paid as part of the necessary expenses attending the government of the Isle of Man) shall apply in relation to such widow's, children's, or dependants' pension as if it were a superannuation allowance or pension to which the said Section 1 applies.

6. Where a contribution is made in respect of an officer under Section 9 or Section 22 of the Act the amount thereof shall be apportioned between the Exchequer and the Treasurer of the Isle of Man in the like proportions that the superannuation allowance or pension to which the officer had, would or might have become eligible under the Isle of Man (Officers) Acts is, would be or might be apportionable between them under the proviso to section 1 of the Isle of Man (Officers) Act, 1876.

7. Section 8 and Section 21 of the Act (which relate to the return of the periodical contributions made under the Act) shall not apply in the case of any person who ceases to be a civil servant in order to become employed in the permanent civil service of the Isle of Man.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1949.

R. J. Taylor,
Wm. Hannan,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of
His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules provide that where a person with joint service in the Civil Service of the State and the Permanent Civil Service of the Isle of Man is a participant in the Widows' or Dependants' Pension Schemes under Parts I or II of the Superannuation Act 1949, the contributions and pensions payable under those Schemes are to be apportioned between the two Civil Services on a basis proportionate to the length of service with each.

(6) NATIONAL INSURANCE

The National Insurance (Modification of the Superannuation Acts) (Amendment) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 1620

Made - - - -	29*th August*, 1949
Laid before Parliament	30*th August*, 1949
Coming into Operation	31*st August*, 1949

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in exercise of the powers conferred upon Them by subsection (4) of section 69 of the National

Insurance Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling Them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Modification of the Superannuation Acts) (Amendment) Regulations, 1949.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. In these Regulations the expression "the Principal Regulations" means the National Insurance (Modification of the Superannuation Acts) Regulations, 1948(c).

3. Regulation 3 of the Principal Regulations shall have effect as if the reference in paragraph (d) thereof to persons being continuously employed in the civil service of the State in an unestablished capacity included a reference to them being continuously employed in part-time service to which section 40 of the Superannuation Act, 1949(d), applies, and as if the reference in the said paragraph to persons becoming entitled to have their service in an unestablished capacity during any period before the 1st March, 1948, reckoned under subsection (1) of section 3 of the Superannuation Act, 1935(e), included a reference to them becoming entitled to have their service during such period in part-time service to which the said section 40 applies reckoned under subsection (5) of that section.

4. The Principal Regulations shall be varied by inserting at the end of Regulation 4 thereof the following paragraph:—

(3) Where a person (not being a person to whom the immediately foregoing paragraph applies) becomes a civil servant on or after the 1st day of March, 1948, through recruitment by a competition held before the 1st day of September, 1948, and determined by the Treasury to be a competition confined to persons having knowledge and experience of work arising from the National Health Insurance Acts or the Workmen's Compensation Acts, the Treasury may direct that these Regulations shall not apply to that person.

(4) In this Regulation—

(a) the expression "National Health Insurance Acts" means the National Health Insurance Acts, 1936-1941, or the enactments repealed by the National Health Insurance Act, 1936;

(b) the expression "Workmen's Compensation Acts" has the meaning assigned to it by subsection (5) of section 30 of the National Insurance Act, 1946.

5. These Regulations shall come into force on the 31st day of August, 1949.

Dated this 29th day of August, 1949.

Wm. Hannan,
R. J. Taylor,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

(c) S.I. 1948 (No. 498) I, p. 3291. (d) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 44.
(e) 25 & 26 Geo. 5. c. 23.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules amend the principal Regulations (which provide for the reduction of Civil Service pensions at age 65 by the amount of the National Insurance pension) by adding two new categories to the classes of persons exempted from the operation of those Regulations. These are:—

(1) Persons who were employed part-time in the Civil Service before 1st March, 1948.

(2) Persons with experience of National Health Insurance work, etc., who were recruited to the Ministry of National Insurance by a special competition in the first half of 1948.

(7) NATIONAL SERVICE

The Superannuation (Treatment of Compulsory National Service of Civil Servants) Rules, 1949

1949 No. 517

Made - - - -	23rd March, 1949
Laid before Parliament	24th March, 1949
Coming into Operation	25th March, 1949

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in exercise of the powers conferred upon Them by Section 1 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948(a), (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") and of all other powers enabling Them in that behalf hereby make the following rules:—

1.—(1) These rules may be cited as the Superannuation (Treatment of Compulsory National Service of Civil Servants) Rules, 1949.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to these rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) These rules shall come into force on the 25th day of March, 1949.

2.—(1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) The expression "any further period of national service" means, in relation to any person to whom these rules apply, any further period which immediately follows that person's compulsory national service and during which with the consent of the Head of his Department he continues in service, work or training similar to his compulsory national service.

(b) The expression "civil servant" has the meaning assigned to it by the Act.

(c) The expression "compulsory national service" has the meaning assigned to it by sub-section (7) of Section 1 of the Act.

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 33. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
