The National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Contributors) (Transitional) Amendment Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 538

Made - - - -	30*th March*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	30*th March*, 1951
Coming into Operation	4*th April*, 1951

M.N.I. 198.

The Minister of National Insurance, in conjunction with the Treasury, in exercise of powers conferred by section 65 of the National Insurance Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Contributors) (Transitional) Amendment Regulations, 1951, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Contributors) (Transitional) Regulations, 1948(b), as amended(c), (hereinafter referred to as " the principal regulations ") and shall come into operation on the 4th April, 1951.

Amendment of the principal regulations

2. At the end of regulation 6 of the principal regulations (which regulation relates to widow's basic pension etc., for certain widows not entitled to widow's benefit) there shall be added the following new paragraph:—

" (4) Where a widow has not become entitled to a widowed mother's allowance to which she would otherwise be entitled by virtue of these regulations because the child by reason of whose inclusion in her family that allowance would be payable is not in Great Britain, then if—

(a) the child is in any part of His Majesty's dominions outside Great Britain or in the Republic of Ireland or the Republic of India, and would be included in her family but for the provisions of subsection (3) of section 24 of the Family Allowances Act, 1945(d) (which subsection makes residence in Great Britain a condition of a child's being included in a family); and

(b) the widow becomes or has become entitled to a widow's basic pension;

a child's allowance shall be payable to the widow for any period during which the child would, but for the said subsection (3), be included in her family, at such a rate as will increase the rate of that pension to the rate below which the widowed mother's allowance, if it were payable, might not be reduced under regulation 12, on account of the earnings of the widow ".

Dated this 30th day of March, 1951.

Edith Summerskill,
Minister of National Insurance.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Contributors) (Transitional) Regulations, 1948, so as to give the widow of an existing pensions contributor, who is entitled to a widow's basic pension, but has never become entitled to a widowed mother's allowance by reason of her child's absence from Great Britain, an entitlement also to a child's allowance, for any period during which her child is but for such absence a child of her family and is in any other part of His Majesty's dominions, or in the Republic of Ireland or the Republic of India.

NATIONAL INSURANCE (INDUSTRIAL INJURIES)

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Amendment Regulations, 1951
