excluding any period of service performed under Section 1 or Section 2 of the Act) which is under paragraph (3) of Regulation 6 to be treated as equivalent to a term of part-time service of four months.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1949.

John Dugdale,
W. J. Edwards,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of these Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations are made by the Admiralty under Sections 4 (2), 5 (5) and 23 (2) of the National Service Act, 1948, as amended by the National Service (Amendment) Act, 1948.

Regulation 4 makes provision for defining what constitutes a day's training for the purposes of Part I of the Act, and relates to training for which a national service man is called up by a training notice (i.e. training for a period of not less than six days).

Regulation 5 specifies the person to whom and the manner in which persons are to notify any change occurring in their name or address during their term of part-time service under the Act.

Regulation 6 defines the amount of whole-time and part-time service to be regarded as the equivalent of any term of service which may have been performed in the regular forces by a person after attaining the age of seventeen years and six months.

Regulation 7 provides for the extent to which a person who has ceased to serve in the armed forces of the Crown before completing his whole-time and part-time service, or terms of service which, under Regulation 6, are equivalent thereto, is still liable to perform whole-time or part-time service under Section 1 of the Act.

Regulation 8 defines, in the case of persons called up under Section 23 of the Act to serve a term of part-time service, the amount of training which may be allowed to count, in respect of former training or former service carried out by that person, towards the maximum period of sixty days' training which persons may be required to undergo during the whole of their part-time service under the Act.

---

4. TRANSFER DURING PART-TIME SERVICE

The National Service (Transfer during Part-time Service) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 1447

Made - - - -	28th July, 1949
Laid before Parliament	29th July, 1949
Coming into Operation	1st September, 1949

The Admiralty, the Army Council and the Air Council in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section 3 of the National Service Act, 1948(a), as amended by the National Service (Amendment) Act, 1948(b),

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 64. (b) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 6.

and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

General

1. These Regulations may be cited as The National Service (Transfer during Part-time Service) Regulations, 1949, and shall come into operation on the 1st September, 1949.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

(i) 'The Act' means The National Service Act, 1948, as amended by the National Service (Amendment) Act, 1948;

(ii) 'national service man' means a man serving a term of part-time service;

(iii) 'part-time service' means part-time service within the meaning of Part I of the Act;

(iv) 'volunteer' means a man serving in an auxiliary force in accordance with section 2 of the Act including any person serving in an auxiliary force who has been transferred to that force in accordance with Regulations 9, 10 or 11 of these Regulations.

3. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

4. Any direction or consent which under these Regulations may be given by the Admiralty, the Army Council or the Air Council may be given by any person authorised by the Admiralty, the Army Council or the Air Council, as the case may be, to give that direction or consent.

Transfer of a National Service man

5. A national service man serving in the Royal Naval Special Reserve may, if the Admiralty so direct, be transferred:

(a) to the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Army Council, or

(b) to the Air Force Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Air Council.

6. A national service man serving in the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve may, if the Army Council so direct, be transferred from the former force to the latter force or from the latter force to the former force, or from either of those forces:

(a) to the Royal Naval Special Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Admiralty, or

(b) to the Air Force Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Air Council.

7. A national service man serving in the Air Force Reserve may, if the Air Council so direct, be transferred:

(a) to the Royal Naval Special Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Admiralty, or

(b) to the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Army Council.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

8. A transfer in accordance with paragraphs 5, 6 or 7 shall take effect on such date as is fixed by the direction, and the man so transferred shall be deemed as from the date so fixed to be entered or enlisted for service in the force to which he is transferred for so much of the term of his part-time service as is unexpired at that date.

Transfer of a Volunteer

9. A volunteer serving in the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve may at his request, and if the Admiralty so direct, be transferred from any one of those forces to serve as a volunteer in any other one of those forces or from any one of those forces:

(a) to serve as a volunteer in the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Army Council, or

(b) to serve as a volunteer in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Auxiliary Air Force, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Air Council.

10. A volunteer serving in the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve may at his request, and if the Army Council so direct, be transferred from the former force to serve as a volunteer in the latter force or from the latter force to serve as a volunteer in the former force or from either of those forces:

(a) to serve as a volunteer in the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Admiralty, or

(b) to serve as a volunteer in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Auxiliary Air Force, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Air Council.

11. A volunteer serving in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Auxiliary Air Force may at his request, and if the Air Council so direct, be transferred from the former force to serve as a volunteer in the latter force or from the latter force to serve as a volunteer in the former force or from either of those forces:

(a) to serve as a volunteer in the Royal Naval Reserve, the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve or the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Admiralty, or

(b) to serve as a volunteer in the Territorial Army or the Army Reserve, if the direction for his transfer is given with the consent of the Army Council.

12. A transfer in accordance with paragraphs 9, 10 or 11 shall take effect on such date as is fixed by the direction providing for the transfer and the volunteer so transferred shall be discharged from his engagement in the force from which he is transferred and shall be entered or enlisted in the force to which he is transferred for a term of service not less than the difference between—

(a) the term of part-time service which he would have been required to serve if he had never become a volunteer and

(b) the term for which he has served as a volunteer at the date on which his transfer takes effect.

13. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained in these Regulations, a person whose name is entered in the Isle of Man Military Service Register shall not be transferred under any of the foregoing Regulations from the Royal Naval Special Reserve, the Territorial Army, the Army Reserve or the Air Force Reserve to any other of those four auxiliary forces unless the direction for his transfer is given with his consent or a unit of that other auxiliary force has been established in the Isle of Man.

Dated this 28th day of July, 1949.

John Dugdale.
W. J. Edwards.
E. Shinwell.
J. S. Steele.
G. W. Turner.
A. Henderson.
Geoffrey de Freitas.
J. H. Barnes.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, made by the Admiralty, the Army Council and the Air Council under section 3 of the National Service Act, 1948, as amended by the National Service (Amendment) Act, 1948, make provision for the transfer of persons performing part-time service, or volunteer service in lieu of part-time service, under the National Service Act from one auxiliary force in which they are performing such service to another auxiliary force.

Regulations 5 to 8 authorise the transfer of any person performing part-time service in any one of the following forces, namely, the Royal Naval Special Reserve, the Territorial Army, the Army Reserve or the Air Force Reserve, to any other one of those forces for the residue of that person's part-time service, with or without his consent.

Regulations 9 to 12 authorise the transfer of persons performing volunteer service in lieu of part-time service under section 2 of the National Service Act, 1948, from the forces in which they are performing that service to certain other auxiliary forces for a period not less than the residue of their term of service in cases where that person makes a request for such a transfer.

Regulation 13 prevents a person whose name is entered in the Isle of Man Military Service Register from being transferred under these Regulations from the Royal Naval Special Reserve, the Territorial Army, the Army Reserve or the Air Force Reserve to any other of those four auxiliary forces unless he consents to the transfer or a unit of the force to which it is proposed to transfer him has been established in the Isle of Man.