CHAPTER 32

An Act to make further provision with respect to the pay, bounty and allowances of officers and men of the naval and marine reserves (including officers of reserve to the royal navy) and for purposes connected therewith.

[6th June, 1957]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Rates of pay, bounty and allowances for naval reserves.

1.—(1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix the rates of pay, bounty and allowances payable to persons described in the First Schedule to this Act; and an Order in Council under this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order in Council.

28 & 29 Vict. c. 73.

(2) Sections three and five of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865 (which respectively provide for regulating the payment of naval and marine pay, pensions, bounty and other allowances and prohibit their assignment), shall apply in relation to pay, bounty and allowances payable to any person described in the said First Schedule as they apply in relation to pay, bounty and allowances payable in respect of services in Her Majesty's naval or marine force to a person being an officer or subordinate officer, seaman or marine; and the Naval Forces (Enforcement of Maintenance Liabilities) Act, 1947, shall have effect as if any reference therein to an officer, seaman or marine included a reference to any person so described.

10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 24.

(3) Section twelve of the said Act of 1865 (which provides for the publication and laying before Parliament of Orders in Council under that Act) shall apply, and the Statutory Instruments Act, 1946, shall not apply, to Orders in Council under this section.

9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 36.

Short title and repeals.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Naval and Marine Reserves Pay Act, 1957.

(2) The enactments mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule, and the repeal by this subsection of any enactment shall extend to that enactment as applied by or incorporated in any other enactment.
