

ANNO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Sess. 2.

Three-pence, for every Horse drawing any Stage Coach with Four Horses, Two-pence, and for every Horse or Mule drawing any Coach or other such like Carriage which should be licensed to carry more than Six Inside Passengers and less than Twelve, the Sum of Four-pence Halfpenny, and which should be licensed to carry Twelve or more Inside Passengers, the Sum of Sixpence, instead of the Tolls in the said Act with respect to other Horses drawing Stage Carriages otherwise mentioned and set out: And whereas by the said Act it was further enacted, that it should be lawful for the Trustees appointed under or by the said Act, or any Three or more of them, at any Time or Times between the First Day of March and the First Day of October in every Year, to order and direct such Part or Parts of the said Roads as they should think fit to be watered when and as often as they should think fit, and that it should also be lawful for the said Trustees, their Lessees, and their Collectors and Receivers, during such of the said Months as the said Roads are watered, to collect, levy, and receive for every Horse or Mule the Sum of One Penny over and above the Tolls by the said Act therein-before granted, provided that such additional Tolls should only be paid and payable upon those Parts of the said Roads which should be actually watered as therein aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act, so far as relates to the said Tolls herein-before recited and set forth, and also so far as relates to the said additional Toll so to be paid and payable as aforesaid, for and in respect of the watering of the said Roads at the Times aforesaid: And whereas an Act was passed in the Second Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to extend, alter, and amend the Powers and Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, relating to the New Cross Turnpike Roads, in the Counties of Kent and Surrey: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said first-recited Act as enacts that the respective Tolls herein aforesaid should and might be demanded and taken at each and every Turnpike, Toll Gate, Side Gate, or Bar upon the Turnpike Roads of the said Trust, that is to say, for every Horse or Mule drawing any Coach, Chariot, Caravan, Chaise, Calash, Hearse, or such like Carriage drawn by One or more Horses, and for every Horse or Mule drawing any other Carriage whatever, driven with Reins (except Stage Coaches with Four Horses), Three-pence, for every Horse drawing any Stage Coach with Four Horses, Two-pence, and for every Horse or Mule drawing any Coach or other such like Carriage which should be licensed to carry more than Six Inside Passengers and less than Twelve, the Sum of Four-pence Halfpenny, and which should be licensed to carry Twelve or more Inside Passengers, the Sum of Sixpence, and also so much of the said Act as enacts, that it should also be lawful for the said Trustees, their Lessees, and their Collectors and Receivers, during such Times as the said Roads should be watered, to collect, levy, and receive, for every Horse or Mule, the Sum of One Penny, over and above the Tolls by the said Act therein-before granted (provided that such additional Tolls should only be paid and payable upon those Repeal of Part of first recited Act after 30th Sept. 1842.

Parts of the said Roads which should be actually watered), shall be and the same is hereby repealed after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

Tolls to be taken after 30th Sept. 1842.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-two the respective Tolls following may be demanded and taken at each and every Turnpike, Toll Gate, Side Gate, or Bar which is now or hereafter shall be set up or continued upon, across, or by the Side of any of the said Roads, by each and every Person who shall be appointed or continued a Collector of the said Tolls, before any Horse or Mule respectively shall be permitted to pass through any such Turnpike, Toll Gate, Side Gate, or Bar; that is to say,

For every Horse or Mule drawing any Coach, Chariot, Caravan, Chaise, Calash, Hearse, or such like Carriage drawn by One or more Horses or Mules, and for every Horse or Mule drawing any Omnibus, Long Coach, or such like Carriage licensed to carry more than Six Inside Passengers, and for every Horse or Mule drawing any other Carriage whatever driven with Reins (except Stage Coaches drawn by Three or more Horses), Three-pence;

And for every Horse or Mule drawing any Stage Coach with Three or more Horses, Two-pence.

Toll for watering Roads between 1st of March and 1st of October.

III. And whereas by the said herein-before first-recited Act it was enacted that it should be lawful for the said Trustees, or any Three or more of them, at any Time or Times between the First Day of March and the First Day of October in every Year, to order and direct such Part or Parts of the said Roads as they should think fit to be watered, when and as often as they should think fit; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, their Lessees, and their Collectors and Receivers, during such Months in every Year as they shall think proper, to direct the said Roads to be watered; and at all or any of the said Gates during such Months as the same shall be directed to be watered, and upon such Parts of the said Roads over which the said watering extends, at the Discretion of the said Trustees, to collect, levy, and receive for every Horse or Mule the Sum of One Halfpenny over and above the Tolls by the said herein-before recited Acts or by this Act granted.

The other Powers of the recited Acts to extend to this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That all other the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Provisions, Penalties, Remedies, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts herein-before recited (save and except such Parts thereof as are varied, altered, or repealed by this Act, or are inconsistent therewith, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England,) shall extend and be construed to extend to this Act, and shall be as good, valid, and effectual for carrying this Act into execution as if the same had been respectively repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Commencement and Continuance of Act.

V. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred dred and forty-two, and shall continue and be in force for and during the Term of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth.

Public Act. VI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
