ANNO DUODECIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. xiv.

An Act to amend an Act for the better regulating and improving the Port and Harbour of New Ross in the Counties of Wexford and Kilkenny.

[24th May 1849.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the better regulating and improving the Port and Harbour of New Ross in the Counties of Wexford and Kilkenny, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in execution of said Act to demand for every Vessel (except such as should carry Limestone or Manure as the sole Cargo) using or entering the said Port and Harbour within the Limits of said Port and Harbour any Sum for every Ton Measurement of such Vessel not exceeding the Rates mentioned in Schedule (B.) thereunto annexed: And whereas by the Schedule (B.) to said recited Act annexed it is provided, that a Rate not exceeding Two-pence per Ton shall be charged upon and paid for and upon every Ton of the Admeasurement of every Vessel (not exceeding One hundred Tons Burthen) for each and every Voyage made to and from the said Port and Harbour of New Ross, and a Rate not exceeding Three-pence per Ton for and upon every Ton of the Admeasurement of every Vessel (Vessels exceeding One hundred Tons Burthen and Foreign Vessels excepted) 11 & 12 Vict. c. 139.

excepted) for each and every Voyage made to and from the said Port and Harbour of New Ross: And whereas the said Schedule (B.) is manifestly incorrect, inasmuch as thereunder Vessels exceeding One hundred Tons Burden using said Port and Harbour of New Ross would escape paying any Rates to said Commissioners, contrary to the Intent of said Act; and it is expedient that the said Schedule should be amended, but same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act to demand a Rate not exceeding Three-pence per Ton for and upon every Ton of the Admeasurement of every Vessel exceeding One hundred Tons Burthen (Foreign Vessels excepted), for each and every Voyage made to and from the said Port and Harbour of New Ross, the same to be payable and recoverable as any other Rate is by the said recited Act made payable and recoverable: Provided always, that no greater Rate than Two-pence per Ton upon Vessels not exceeding One hundred Tons Burthen shall be levied under the said recited Act.

Rates upon Vessels exceeding 100 Tons Burthen.

Costs of Act.

II. And be it enacted, That the Expenses of this Act shall be paid by the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act, out of the Monies that now are in or may come to their Hands as such Commissioners.

Public Act.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, and be incorporated with and form Part of the said recited Act.
