Cap. xiii.

An Act for repealing certain Provisions of the Newmarket and Chesterford Railway Act, 1846.

[8th June 1847.]

9 & 10 Vict c. 172.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, for making a Railway from Chesterford to Newmarket, with a Branch to Cambridge, called "The Newmarket and Chesterford Railway Act, 1846:" And whereas the said Act contains certain Provisions authorizing the Company thereby incorporated to use the Line of the Eastern Counties Railway, and the Eastern Counties Railway Company to use the Line of Railway thereby authorized to be made, together with certain other Provisions incidental thereto: And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions should be repealed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Certain Provisions of recited Act repealed.

That all the Provisions of the said recited Act, whereby it is enacted that the Company thereby incorporated should be authorized to use the Line of the Eastern Counties Railway, and the Eastern Counties Railway Company to use the Line of Railway to be constructed under the Powers of the said Act, and that that each of the said Companies might use all Stations, Sidings, Points, Crossings, Turn-tables, Water Cranes, and Water belonging to the other of the said Companies, and should pay to the other of them, in addition to the Tolls authorized to be raised by the said Act, and by the Act incorporating the Eastern Counties Railway Company, or any Amendment thereof, such Sum or Sums of Money by way of Compensation for the Water, and for the Use of the Water Cranes or other Appurtenances, as might be agreed upon between the said Companies, and that in the event of any Dispute as to the Amount of any such Compensation the same should be settled by Arbitration in the Manner proved or provided by the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for the Settlement of Disputes, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Public Act. II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
