CHAPTER cxxxvi.

An Act for empowering the North Metropolitan Tramways Company to extend their Tramways along Green Lanes and for other purposes. [12th July 1882.]

A.D. 1882.

WHEREAS the North Metropolitan Tramways Company (herein-after called "the Company") have constructed and are now working tramways in the north and east of London and the suburbs thereof and it is expedient that they should be authorised to lay down and maintain the new tramways in connexion therewith in this Act particularly described:

And whereas it is expedient that the Company should be authorised to raise additional capital:

And whereas plans and sections showing the lines and levels and indicating the position in the streets along which they are to be laid down of the tramways and works by this Act authorised and books of reference to those plans have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Middlesex and those plans sections and books of reference are in this Act referred to as the deposited plans sections and books of reference respectively:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the North Metropolitan Tramways Act 1882.

Part I. (relating to cancellation and surrender of shares) and Part II. (relating to additional capital) of the Companies Clauses Act 1863.

26 & 27 Vict. c. 118.

Interpretation.

3. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or in part incorporated herewith shall have the same respective meanings unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :—

The expression "the tramways" shall mean the tramways and works by this Act authorised ;

The expression "the undertaking" shall mean the undertaking of the Company as authorised by any other Acts relating to the Company and this Act ;

For the purposes of this Act the word "contingencies" in section 122 of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 shall be construed to include the contingency of the undertaking being sold to the local authority under section 43 of the Tramways Act 1870 at a sum less than the aggregate amount of the capital and debts of the Company ; and

The expression "superior courts" or "court of competent jurisdiction" or any other like expression in this Act and in any Act wholly or in part incorporated herewith shall for the purposes of this Act be read and have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which the expression is used were a simple contract debt and not a debt or demand created by statute. A.D. 1882.

Power to make tramways.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of Parts II. and III. of the Tramways Act 1870 the Company may make form lay down work use and maintain the tramways herein-after described in the lines and according to the levels shown on the deposited plans and sections and in all respects in accordance with those plans and sections with all proper rails plates works and conveniences connected therewith The tramways herein-before referred to and authorised by this Act are:—

The Green Lanes lines distinguished on the deposited plans by the numbers 2 and 2a consisting of six furlongs of double line commencing in Green Lanes by junctions with the existing tramways of the Company at or near the entrance of the Company's Highbury New Park depôt and passing thence in a northerly direction along Green Lanes and terminating at the junction of Green Lanes and Seven Sisters Road;

And the tramways by this Act authorised shall for all purposes be part of the undertaking of the Company.

Mode of formation of tramways.

5. Every tramway to be made formed or laid down under this Act shall be constructed with two rails on the gauge of four feet eight and a half inches and to be laid and maintained in such manner that the uppermost surface of the rail shall be on a level with the surface of the street and no tramway shall be opened for public traffic until the same has been inspected and certified to be fit for such traffic by the Board of Trade.

Rails to be approved by Board of Trade.

6. The rails of the tramways shall be such as the Board of Trade approve.

Company may be required to use improved form of rail.

7. The Board of Trade may from time to time upon the application of the local or road authority of any district in which any or any part of the tramways is situated require the Company to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramways including the rails thereof as experience may from time to time suggest having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic and the Company shall with all reasonable despatch comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying into effect any such improvements.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and roads in good condition.

8. The Company shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair and so as not to be a danger or annoyance to the ordinary traffic the rails of the tramways by this Act authorised and of all other tramways of the Company and the substructure upon which the same rest and if the Company at any time fail to comply with this provision or with the provisions of section 28 of the Tramways Act 1870 they shall be for every such offence subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such non-compliance continues and such penalty may be recovered in manner provided by section 56 of the said Act and the tramways of the Company for the purposes of this section shall include any tramways purchased by the Company or taken on lease by them during the continuance of any such lease.

Special provision as to penalties for not maintaining tramways in good condition.

9. In addition to any other provisions of this Act the Company shall maintain and keep the tramways by this Act authorised and all other tramways belonging to or leased by the Company in good condition and repair to the satisfaction of the road authority of the district within which such tramways respectively are or may be situate and if the Company at any time fail to maintain and keep the same in good condition and repair to such satisfaction as aforesaid they shall for every such default be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such default continues and such penalty may be recovered in manner provided by the said section 56 of the Tramways Act 1870 but by the said road authority only.

Traffic to be suspended during works of drainage.

10. If and whenever in the opinion of the Metropolitan Board of Works it shall be necessary or expedient for the purpose of constructing or altering any sewer or drain to interfere with any of the tramways of the Company constructed under this or any other Act or the roadway in which the same shall be made the said Board may without any consent or concurrence on the part of the Company enter upon and interfere with such tramways or roadway after having given except in case of emergency at least one month's previous notice in writing to the Company of their intention so to do and the Company shall during the execution of any such works either suspend the traffic upon such tramway or make provision at their own expense for carrying on the same in a manner satisfactory to the engineer of the said Board so as not to interfere with any such work and shall have no claim for compensation against the said Board.

Tramways to be always kept on level with surface of roads.

11. If and whenever after the passing of this Act any road authority shall alter the level of any road along or across which any part of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid the Company may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Further provisions as to construction of tramways.

12. In addition to the requirements of section 26 of the Tramways Act 1870 the Company shall at the same time as they give notice to the road authority of their intention to open or break up any road for the purpose of making forming and laying down maintaining and renewing any of the tramways lay before the Board of Trade a plan showing the proposed mode of construction and a statement of the materials intended to be used therein and the Company shall not commence the construction of any of the tramways or part of any of the tramways respectively until such plan and statement have been approved by the said Board and after such approval the works shall be executed in accordance in all respects with such plan and statement and under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the surveyor for the time being of the road authority as provided by section 26 of the said Act Provided always that the word "materials" in this enactment does not include the materials used in paving any part of any street under the provisions of the Tramways Act 1870 or of this Act.

Company may be required to use improved form of rail.

13. The Board of Trade may from time to time upon the application of the local authority require the Company to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramways including the rails thereof as experience may from time to time suggest having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic and the Company shall with all reasonable despatch comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and roads in good condition.

14. The Company shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair and so as not to be a danger or annoyance to the ordinary traffic the rails of the tramway and the substructure upon which the same rest and if the Company at any time fail to comply with this provision or with the provisions of section 28 of the Tramways Act 1870 they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such non-compliance continues and such penalty may be recovered by the local authority only in manner provided by section 56 of the said Act.

Appeal to the Board of Trade.

15. In case it is represented in writing to the Board of Trade by the road authority of any district in which the tramways or any portion thereof are or is situate or by twenty inhabitant ratepayers of such district that the Company have made default in complying with the provisions of this Act as to maintaining and keeping in good condition and repair the rails of the tramways and the substructure upon which the same rest or with any of the requirements of section 28 of the Tramways Act 1870 the Board of Trade may if they think fit direct an inspection by an officer to be appointed by the said Board and if such officer report that the default mentioned in such representation has been proved to his satisfaction then and in every such case a copy of such report certified by a secretary or an assistant secretary of the Board of Trade may be adduced as evidence of such default and of the liability of the Company to such penalty or penalties in respect thereof as is or are by this Act imposed.

Sewer authority to have access to sewers.

16. Every sewer authority shall at all times have free access to and communication with all their sewers and drains and power to lay lateral and private drains to communicate therewith without the consent or concurrence of the Company and the provisions contained in the thirty-second and thirty-third sections of the Tramways Act 1870 shall be applicable in the case of any sewer or private drain of or under the control of the sewer authority as if the same were a pipe for the supply of gas or water.

Application of road materials excavated in construction of works.

17. Any paving metalling or material excavated by the Company in the construction of the undertaking from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Company so far as may be necessary in or towards the reinstating of the road and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Company are by section 28 of the Tramways Act 1870 required to maintain and the Company shall if so required deliver the surplus paving metalling or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same Provided that if within seven days after the setting aside of the surplus arising from the excavation of any such paving metalling or material and notice duly given such surplus is not removed by such surveyor or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose such surplus paving metalling or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Company and may be dealt with removed and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit Any difference between the Company and any road authority or surveyor or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid shall be determined in manner provided by the Tramways Act 1870 with respect to differences between the promoters and any road authority.

Saving rights of Metropolitan

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter abridge or take away any of the rights powers and privileges conferred upon the Metropolitan Board of Works by the Metropolis Local Management Act 1855 or any other Act relating to that Board as to stopping for public traffic any road or street under the jurisdiction of that Board for the purpose of constructing repairing and maintaining the sewers along or under any such road or street.

Board of Works to stop up, &c. streets. 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120.

19. Section 17 of the North Metropolitan Tramways Act 1869 (for the protection of the sewers of the Metropolitan and other Boards &c.) is incorporated with and forms part of this Act as fully and effectually as if that section had been expressly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Extending section 17 of 32 & 33 Vict. c. ci.

20. For the protection of the Board of Works for the Hackney District (herein-after called the Board) the following provisions shall have effect with reference to the tramways by this Act authorised:—

For protection of Hackney Board of Works.

1. Wherever the tramways are laid along any public road within the district of the Board the Company shall pitch the roadway of the said road with granite for the entire width thereof such pitching being not less than six inches deep and the Company shall at all times thereafter repair and maintain the pitching between the rails and for a width of three feet on each side thereof;
2. If the Company lay the tramways on or use any of the existing granite pitching they shall pay the Board for the same such reasonable price as shall be fixed by the Board;
3. In the construction of the tramways all road materials removed or taken up by the Company and not used or required by them in restoring and reforming the road shall remain the property of the Board.

21. The Company may subject to the provisions of Part II. of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 raise by the creation and issue of new shares any additional capital not exceeding in the whole fifty-two thousand pounds and such new shares may be wholly or partially ordinary shares or wholly or partially preference shares as the Company think fit but the Company shall not issue any share of less nominal value than ten pounds nor shall any share vest in the person or corporation accepting the same unless and until a sum not being less than one fifth of the amount of such share shall have been paid in respect thereof.

Power to raise additional capital.

22. One fifth of the amount of a share shall be the greatest amount of a call and three months at least shall be the interval

Restriction as to votes in respect of preferential shares or stock.

23. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the resolution creating the same no person shall be entitled to vote in respect of any new shares or stock created by the Company under this Act to which a preferential dividend shall be assigned.

Receipts on behalf of incapacitated persons.

24. If any money be payable to any shareholder being a minor idiot or lunatic the receipt of the guardian or committee of his estate shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company for the same.

Power to borrow.

25. The Company may in respect of the additional capital of fifty-two thousand pounds which they are by this Act authorised to raise from time to time borrow on mortgage in addition to the sums which they are already authorised to borrow any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole thirteen thousand pounds and of that sum they may borrow from time to time not exceeding six thousand five hundred pounds in respect of every twenty-six thousand pounds of the said additional capital but no part of any such sum of six thousand five hundred pounds shall be borrowed until shares for the whole of the respective portion of capital in respect of which it is to be borrowed are issued and accepted and one half of such portion of capital is paid up and the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the fortieth section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 (before he so certifies) that shares for the whole of the respective portion of capital have been issued and accepted and that one half of such portion of capital has been paid up and that not less than one fifth part of the amount of each separate share in such portion of capital has been paid on account thereof before or at the time of the issue or acceptance thereof and the Company have proved to such justice as aforesaid before he so certifies that such shares were issued and accepted and paid up bonâ fide and are held by the persons or corporations to whom the same were issued or their executors administrators successors or assigns and that such persons or corporations or their executors administrators successors or assigns are legally liable for the same and upon production to such justice of the books of the Company and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given which certificate shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

For appointment of a receiver. 43 & 44 Vict. c. xcvii.

26. Section 20 of the North Metropolitan Tramways Act 1880 relating to the appointment of a receiver is hereby repealed but without prejudice to any appointment which may have been made or to the continuance of any proceedings which may have been commenced prior to the passing of this Act under that section The mortgagees of the Company may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal or principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver and in order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of principal or principal and interest the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver shall be made shall not be less than ten thousand pounds in the whole.

Moneys borrowed on mortgage to have priority.

27. All moneys to be borrowed on mortgage under any former Act relating to the Company or under this Act from the time when the same shall be advanced and the interest for the time being due thereon shall (except as otherwise provided by the next following section of this Act) have priority against the Company and all the property from time to time of the Company over all other claims on account of any debts incurred or to be incurred or engagements entered into or to be entered into by them but nothing in this section shall affect any claim in respect of land acquired by the Company for the purposes of this Act or injuriously affected by the construction of the tramways or by the exercise of any of the powers conferred upon the Company.

Existing mortgages to have priority.

28. All mortgages granted by the Company under the authority of any Act or Acts passed before the passing of this Act which shall be subsisting at the passing of this Act shall during the continuance thereof have priority over all mortgages granted under the authority of this Act.

Company not to create debenture stock.

29. The Company shall not create debenture stock.

Mortgage to comprise purchase money paid on compulsory sale.

30. Every mortgage of the Company's undertaking shall be deemed to comprise all purchase money which may be paid to the Company in the event of a compulsory sale to the local authority under section 43 of the Tramways Act 1870 and may comprise all or any moneys carried to the contingency fund according to the terms of the mortgage.

Endorsement of notice of power of future purchase by the local authority.

31. Every mortgage deed granted by the Company under this Act shall be endorsed with notice that such mortgage will not be a charge upon the tramways or the tramway undertaking in the event of their being purchased by the local authority under the forty-third section of the Tramways Act 1870.

Application of moneys.

32. All moneys raised under this Act whether by shares or borrowing shall be applied only for the purposes of this Act and for the general purposes of the Company's undertaking to which capital is properly applicable.

Penalty imposed unless tramways opened within extended time.

33. If the Company fail within the period limited by this Act to complete the tramways or any of them the Company shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds a day for every day after the expiration of the period so limited until the said tramways are completed and opened for public traffic or until the sums received in respect of such penalty shall amount to five per centum on the estimated cost of the uncompleted tramway or tramways and the said penalty may be applied for by any road authority landowner or other person claiming to be compensated in accordance with the provisions of the next following section of this Act or by the Solicitor of Her Majesty's Treasury and in the same manner as the penalty provided in the third section of the Railway and Canal Traffic Act 1854 Every sum of money recovered by way of such penalty as aforesaid shall be paid under the warrant or order of such Court or Judge as is specified in that section to an account opened or to be opened in the name and with the privity of Her Majesty's Paymaster General on behalf of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in the bank and to the credit specified in such warrant or order and shall not be paid thereout except as herein-after provided But no penalty shall accrue in respect of any time during which it shall appear by a certificate to be obtained from the Board of Trade that the Company was prevented from completing or opening any tramway by unforeseen accident or circumstances beyond their control Provided that the want of sufficient funds shall not be held to be a circumstance beyond their control.

17 & 18 Vict. c. 31.

Application of penalty.

34. Every sum of money so recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid shall be applicable and after due notice in the "London Gazette" shall be applied towards compensating any landowners or other persons whose property may have been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement construction or abandonment of the tramway or any portion thereof in respect of the non-completion of which the same was recovered and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid and also in compensating all road authorities for the expense incurred by them in taking up any such tramway or materials connected therewith placed by the Company in or on any road vested in or maintainable by such road authorities respectively and in making good all damage caused to such roads by the construction or abandonment of such tramway and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid in such manner and in such proportions as to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice may seem fit: A.D. 1882.

And if no such compensation shall be payable or if a portion of the sum or sums of money so recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation then the said sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty or such portion thereof as may not be required as aforesaid shall either be forfeited to Her Majesty and accordingly be paid or transferred to or for the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such manner as the said Chancery Division thinks fit to order on the application of the Solicitor of Her Majesty's Treasury and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or in the discretion of the said Chancery Division if the Company is insolvent and has been ordered to be wound up or a receiver has been appointed shall wholly or in part be paid to such receiver or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company or be otherwise applied as part of the assets of the Company for the benefit of the creditors thereof.

Period for completion of works.

35. The tramways shall be completed within two years from the passing of this Act and on the expiration of that period the powers by this Act granted to the Company for executing the tramways or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease to be exercised except as to so much thereof as shall then be completed.

Land by agreement.

36. The Company may from time to time purchase and acquire by agreement in addition to any land which they are already authorised to acquire such land as they may require for their undertaking not exceeding in the whole two acres.

Extending to this Act sections of the Act of 1869 as to tolls.

37. The Company may demand and take in respect of the tramways the tolls and charges which they are by the North Metropolitan Tramways Act 1869 authorised to demand and take with respect to the tramways by that Act authorised as if the tramways had formed part of the tramways by that Act authorised and sections 67 and 68 and 70 to 73 (both inclusive) of the said Act and section 34 of the North Metropolitan Tramways Act 1870 are incorporated with and form part of this Act and shall extend and apply to the tramways by this Act authorised and the passengers using the same and the tolls to be taken for the use of the same as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if those sections had been repeated and expressly re-enacted in this Act with reference thereto.

33 & 34 Vict. c. clxxii.

Periodical revision of tolls.

38. If at any time after three years from the opening for public traffic of the tramways or any portion of the tramways or after three years from the date of any order made in pursuance of this section in respect of the tramways or any portion of the tramways it is represented in writing to the Board of Trade by the local authority of any district in which the tramways or such portion of the tramways are or is wholly or partially situate or by twenty inhabitant ratepayers of any such district or by the Company that under the circumstances then existing all or any of the tolls and charges demanded and taken in respect of the traffic on the tramways or on such portion of the tramways should be revised the Board of Trade may (if they think fit) direct an inquiry by a referee to be appointed by the said Board in accordance with the provisions of the Tramways Act 1870 and if such referee report that it has been proved to his satisfaction that all or any of such tolls and charges should be revised the said Board may make an order in writing altering modifying reducing or increasing all or any of the tolls and charges to be demanded and taken in respect of the traffic on the tramways or on such portion of the tramways in such manner as they think fit and thenceforth such order shall be observed until the same is revoked or modified by an order of the Board of Trade made in pursuance of this section Provided always that the tolls and charges prescribed by any such order shall not exceed in amount the tolls and charges by this Act authorised.

For facilitating interchange and transmission of through traffic.

39. If the Metropolitan Board of Works at any time or times hereafter give notice to the Company stating that in their opinion the Company have not made or are not carrying out proper arrangements for facilitating the interchange and forwarding of traffic coming from or destined for any tramway which belongs to any other company or person and forms an authorised junction with any tramway authorised by this Act and the Company do not within fourteen days after delivery of such notice to them make arrangements in that behalf to the satisfaction of the said Board the Board of Trade may and shall from time to time upon representation by the Metropolitan Board of Works appoint a referee to inquire into the truth of such representation in the manner prescribed by section 63 of the Tramways Act 1870 and if such referee report that such representation is true the Board of Trade may make such regulations including if that Board so think fit arrangements for booking through the traffic or any part thereof and the fixing of through fares and rates as having regard to all the circumstances of the case they may deem expedient for providing for such interchange and forwarding of traffic with as little inconvenience as may be to the public and after fourteen days from the date of the delivery of a copy of any such regulation to the Company the same shall be binding upon the Company and may be enforced in the same manner as regulations made by the local authority under section 46 of the Tramways Act 1870 Provided always that if and whenever the Board of Trade fix any through rate or fare under this section they shall at the same time fix and determine the proportions in which such through rate or fare shall be divided between and belong to the Company and the other companies or company interested and in fixing and determining such proportions the said Board shall take into account all the circumstances of the case including the actual and relative cost of construction and maintenance of the respective tramways and works of the respective companies and the said Board may from time to time rescind alter or vary any order which they may make under this section.

Interest not to be paid on calls paid up.

40. The Company shall not out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised by calls or by borrowing pay interest or dividend to any shareholder on the amount of the calls made in respect of the shares held by him Provided always that this Act shall not prevent the Company from paying to any shareholder such interest on money advanced by him beyond the amount of the calls actually made as is in conformity with the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845.

Deposits for future Bills not to be paid out of capital.

41. The Company shall not out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised pay or deposit any sum which by any standorder of either House of Parliament now or hereafter in force may be required to be deposited in respect of any application to Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act authorising the Company to construct any other tramway or to execute any other work or undertaking.

Provision as to general Tramway Acts.

42. Nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the Company or the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future Session of Parliament or from any future revision or alteration under the authority of Parliament of the maximum rates of tolls or charges authorised by this Act.

Costs of Act.

43. All costs charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing for obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Company.
