ELIZABETH II

1988 CHAPTER xxix

An Act to make further provision in relation to rights of burial in the Billing Road Cemetery in the borough of Northampton; to make further provision with regard to the freemen of the borough of Northampton and the Northampton Freemen's Trustees; to alter certain charities; and for other purposes.

[15th November 1988]

WHEREAS—

(1) The borough of Northampton (hereinafter referred to as "the borough") is under the management and local government of the Council of the borough (hereinafter referred to as "the Council"):

(2) The Billing Road Cemetery in the borough was vested in the predecessors of the Council by the Northampton Corporation Act 1962 and is now vested in and maintained by the Council: 1962 c. lii.

(3) By virtue of that Act burials in that cemetery were wholly discontinued save in respect of certain exclusive rights of burial provided for under that Act and it is expedient to make further provision in relation to such rights:

(4) It is expedient to define the qualifications for obtaining the freedom of the borough and to make the further provision contained in this Act with reference thereto:

(5) It is expedient to extinguish certain charities applicable to the borough, to provide for the transfer of the funds of those charities and to make further provision in respect thereof:

(6) It is expedient that the other provisions of this Act should be enacted:

(7) The purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

(8) In relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the requirements of section 239 of the Local Government Act 1972 have been observed:

1972 c. 70.

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Northampton Act 1988.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

1882 c. ccxii.

"the Act of 1882" means the Northampton Corporation Act 1882;

"the borough" means the borough of Northampton;

"the Council" means the Council of the borough;

"freeman" means a freeman of the borough;

"the trustees" means the trustees of the freemen elected under paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to this Act.

Billing Road Cemetery.

3.—(1) Any person being the holder on 31st July 1987 of a grant of the right of burial in any part of the cemetery granted by the council of the county borough of Northampton (in this section referred to as "the grantee") may apply to the Council for a grant of the right of burial in such part and the Council shall on receiving such application grant such right of burial accordingly for a period of 21 years from the passing of this Act and, save in respect of any such grant, no person shall have any right or interest in any part of the cemetery or any monument, tablet or gravestone placed therein.

(2) Within one month of the passing of this Act the Council shall—

(a) publish a notice stating the effect of subsection (1) above once in each of two successive weeks in some newspaper circulating in the borough, with an interval between the dates of publication of not less than six clear days; and

(b) display a notice to the said effect in a conspicuous position in the cemetery.

(3) A right of burial granted in pursuance of this section shall not be capable of assignment, and where a right entitles the grantee to the interment of the remains of more than one person the grantee shall name in his application the persons to benefit from that grant.

(4) Burials in the cemetery, and the deposit therein of the ashes of any person whose remains have been cremated, shall be lawful during the period of 21 years from the passing of this Act where such burial or deposit is in pursuance of a right of burial and the Council may make and recover a reasonable charge for any such burial or deposit.

(5) The Council may at its discretion permit during the period of 21 years referred to in subsection (4) above the deposit of ashes in any grave where a burial or other deposit of ashes has taken place at any time; and may make and recover a reasonable charge for such deposit.

(6) In this section—

(a) "the cemetery" means the Billing Road Cemetery defined in section 5 of the Northampton Corporation Act 1962;

1962 c. lii.

(b) any reference to a right of burial includes a right to interment of ashes.

Freemen.

4.—(1) (a) Save as provided by subsection (2) below, notwithstanding any custom or enactment, a male who has attained the age of 18 years and who shall have one or both of the relevant qualifications mentioned in paragraph (b) of this subsection and who complies with the procedural requirements for admission shall be qualified to be admitted to the freedom of the borough.

(b) The relevant qualifications referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection are—

(i) patrimony, that is to say, he is either the son of a freeman or the husband of the daughter of a freeman;

(ii) apprenticeship, that is to say, service of not less than three years' whole-time apprenticeship to one or more employers in the borough whether or not freemen.

(c) For the purpose of qualifying for admission to the freedom of the borough the death of any person shall not affect the qualification of any applicant for admission to the freedom of the borough under this subsection.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) above or any custom or enactment, at the discretion of the mayor of the borough exercised at the request of the trustees there may be admitted as freemen males who have attained the age of 18 years not qualified under subsection (1) above.

(3) The trustees shall so far as possible maintain a list of names and addresses of the freemen and shall supply a copy annually to the proper officer of the Council, receipt of which copy shall be deemed compliance by the proper officer with the requirement of subsection (2) of section 248 of the Local Government Act 1972. 1972 c. 70.

(4) Any person may, on application to the person appointed for that purpose by the trustees, inspect at all reasonable hours the list required by subsection (3) above to be maintained and shall be entitled to obtain a copy for any reasonable fee demanded which at the commencement of this Act shall not exceed 20p per page.

(5) Nothing in this section shall, except to the extent required or implied by this section, alter or abolish any subsisting rule, practice, requirement or privilege of the freemen.

Freemen's trustees.

5. Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect.

Payment by Council.

6. In place of the annuity which until the passing of this Act was payable by the Council under section 12 of the Act of 1882, the Council shall, within one month of the passing of this Act, pay the trustees £10,000 and such sum shall be held by the trustees as capital and the income therefrom shall be applied by the trustees in accordance with Schedule 1 to this Act.

Charities.

7.—(1) In this section—

"the Catherine Anne Butterfield Memorial Charity for Deserving Mothers" means the trust of that name established by a declaration of trust by Cleveland Henry James Butterfield dated 12th April 1923;

"the Daniel Herbert Charity" means the trust of that name established under the will of Daniel Herbert dated 9th November 1696;

"the Duston Diamond Jubilee Fund" means the trust of that name established by a scheme made by order of the Charity Commissioners on 21st November 1939;

"the Sermon Charity of John Driden" means the trust of that name established by a deed made by the executors and heiress-at-law of John Driden and dated 16th June 1709.

(2) On the coming into operation of this Act—

(a) the funds of the Catherine Anne Butterfield Memorial Charity for Deserving Mothers and the Duston Diamond Jubilee Fund shall be paid or transferred to the Northampton Queen's Institute Relief in Sickness Fund and shall be held by the trustees of such fund upon the trusts thereof;

(b) the funds of the Daniel Herbert Charity and the Sermon Charity of John Driden shall be paid or transferred to the Driden and Herbert Educational Foundation and shall be held by the trustees of such foundation upon the trusts thereof.

(3) On the payment or transfer of the funds of each of the trusts mentioned in subsection (1) above respectively pursuant to subsection (2) above, the trusts shall be extinguished.

(4) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the powers of the court or of the Charity Commissioners under the Charities Act 1960.

1960 c. 58.

(5) The provisions of this section may be amended by a scheme made under section 18 of the said Act of 1960 and upon the coming into force of any such scheme embodying all such provisions, whether or not so amended, this section shall cease to have effect.

Moneys transferred to Council.
1875 c. cii.

8. The sums of £454·55 and £101·65 paid by the London and North Western Railway Company into the Bank of England to the credit of ex parte the London and North Western Railway in the matter of the London and North Western Railway (Bletchley, Northampton, and Rugby) Act 1875 in respect of land belonging to the mayor, aldermen and burgesses of the borough of Northampton now invested in 2½% Consolidated British Government Stock to the credit of ex parte London and North Western Railway Company to the account of the mayor, aldermen and burgesses of the borough of Northampton are hereby vested in the Council and it is hereby authorised to receive such moneys and to pay them into the general rate fund of the borough.

Part III of Food Act 1984 to apply to markets undertakings.
1984 c. 30.

9.—(1) Any market carried on by the Council within the borough which was not established or acquired under section 50 of the Food Act 1984 or any of the enactments mentioned in subsection (3) of that section shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to have been acquired by the Council under the said section 50.

(2) In its application to the borough, Part III of the Food Act 1984 shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—

(a) In section 50 (1) (a) after "establish" there shall be inserted ", close or move";

(b) In section 61 after the definition of "charges" there shall be inserted—

" 'market' includes a fair,".

Repeals.

10.—(1) (a) The enactments and instruments specified in Schedule 2 to this Act (which, so far as hereby repealed, relate to the borough and have either ceased to have effect by virtue of section 262 of the Local Government Act 1972 or are spent or obsolete or no longer of practical utility) are hereby repealed to the extent specified in that Schedule.

1972 c. 70.

(b) Where such an enactment or instrument is repealed by this Act subject to exceptions and a provision included in the repeal is material for the interpretation of a provision excepted from the repeal, the repeal shall not affect the interpretation of the excepted provision.

(2) The byelaws and other instruments specified in Schedule 3 to this Act are hereby revoked to the extent specified in that Schedule.

(3) Without prejudice to existing rights thereunder, the superannuation schemes made from time to time by the Northampton County Borough Council are hereby revoked.

(4) The following provisions of this Act, that is to say, section 6 (Payment by Council), section 7 (Charities), section 8 (Moneys transferred to Council) and subsections (1) (a) and (2) to (4) of this section and Schedules 2 and 3 to this Act shall be repealed one year after the commencement of this Act.

SCHEDULES

Sections 2, 5 and 6.

SCHEDULE 1

THE NORTHAMPTON FREEMEN'S TRUSTEES

1. There shall be not less than four trustees, to be elected from among their number—

(a) until the list required by section 4 (3) of this Act has been drawn up, by the freemen; and

(b) thereafter, by the freemen whose names appear on that list.

2. The trustees are hereby incorporated with the name of "The Northampton Freemen's Trustees" as successors to the Northampton Freemen's Trustees established under the Act of 1882.

3. No trustee may receive an annuity from the trustees.

4. The trustees shall meet not less than once a year and shall annually elect a chairman from among their number. At any meeting of the trustees where there is an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second and casting vote.

5. The trustees may appoint a clerk, not being a trustee, at such remuneration and with such functions as they may determine.

6. The trustees shall invest the moneys held by them in accordance with the provisions of the Trustee Investments Act 1961.

1961 c. 62.

7. The trustees shall pay the expenses of managing the trust out of the income of the trust, and thereafter may apply the income of the trust in paying such annuities as they think fit from time to time to qualified persons.

8. The trustees may invest income arising from the trust in accordance with paragraph 6 above but any sum so invested may be realised for purposes for which income may properly be applied.

9. The trustees shall prepare their accounts annually and all qualified persons shall be entitled to inspect the accounts.

10. In this Schedule, "qualified person" means anyone who—

(a) resides in the borough; and

(b) is not a trustee under this Schedule; and

(c) is either—

(i) a freeman; or

(ii) the widow or former widow of a freeman and is not currently married.
