CHAP. xlv.

An Act to empower the corporation of Northampton to establish Markets and Fairs; and for other purposes. A.D. 1870.

[20th June 1870.]

WHEREAS the existing markets and fairs in the borough of Northampton belong to the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Northampton (in this Act referred to as "the corporation"), and are at present held in the streets and public places, so as to cause obstructions thereof, and it would be of public and local advantage if the corporation were empowered to provide in the borough new markets and fairs, and slaughter-houses, and for those purposes to appropriate and purchase lands, and to close or remove wholly or in part the existing markets and fairs:

And whereas it is expedient that the powers relative to such markets, fairs, and slaughter-houses, the regulation of the streets and public places of the borough, the inspection and regulation of weights and measures, and other matters in this Act contained, be granted to the corporation:

And whereas it is expedient that the corporation be empowered to raise money for the purposes of this Act:

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

And whereas plans of the lands and houses which may be compulsorily taken under the powers of this Act, and a book of reference to such plans, have been deposited for public inspection with the clerk of the peace for the county of Northampton (which plans and book of reference are in this Act respectively referred to as the deposited plans and book of reference):

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

A.D. 1870.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Northampton Corporation Markets and Fairs Act, 1870."

Interpretation of terms in this and incorporated Acts.

2. With respect to the interpretation of terms in and for the purposes of this Act, the following provisions shall have effect; namely,

In this Act and in any Act herewith incorporated,—

The term "quarter sessions," or "court of quarter sessions," shall be construed to mean the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace for the borough:

The term "court of competent jurisdiction" shall have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which that term is used was an ordinary simple contract debt, and not a debt or demand created by statute; and the term "superior courts" shall include courts of competent jurisdiction within the meaning of this Act:

The several terms to which meanings are assigned by the Acts herewith incorporated have in this Act the same respective meanings, unless excluded by the subject or context:

In this Act,—

The term "the Municipal Corporation Acts" means the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, cap. seventy-six, "to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," and all Acts for the time being in force amending the same, or otherwise relating to municipal corporations in England:

The term "cattle" means bulls, oxen, cows, heifers, and calves, rams, wethers, ewes, and lambs, and swine:

The term "horses" means horses, geldings, mares, foals, and fillies, and includes asses and mules:

The term "borough" means the municipal borough of Northampton:

The term "council" means the town council of the borough.

Provisions of Acts herein named incorporated.

3. The following Acts (so far as the provisions thereof respectively are applicable for the purposes and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act) are hereby incorporated with this Act; namely, "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869."

Act to be executed by corporation.

4. This Act shall be carried into execution by the corporation, acting by the council, and according to the Municipal Corporation Acts and other laws for the time being affecting the corporation, and with all the authorities conferred by those Acts and laws on the corporation, and on the council and committees of the council, and the officers, agents, and servants of the corporation, with respect to matters provided for or comprised in the Municipal Corporation Acts, and as nearly as may be in all respects as if the powers, duties, and property vested in, imposed on, or enjoyed by the corporation by or under this Act were vested in, imposed on, or enjoyed by them by or under the Municipal Corporation Acts.

Limits of Act.

5. The limits of this Act shall be co-extensive with the limits for the time being of the borough.

Power for corporation to establish markets and fairs.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the corporation may, within the limits of this Act, establish the markets and fairs and make and maintain the works and exercise the powers herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,)

They may from time to time establish and provide a market or markets and fair or fairs for the sale of meat, fish, poultry, game, butter, eggs, cheese, bacon, vegetables, fruit, hay, straw, grain, agricultural implements, timber, hides, skins, leather, baskets, and all other goods, wares, merchandise, and marketable commodities, upon the market square in the borough, or upon any other lands now belonging to the corporation, or which they may appropriate, take, or purchase, under the powers of this Act:

They may abolish, wholly or in part, the existing markets and fairs now held in the Drapery and the Mercers Row, and adjoining or near to the west end of All Saints Churchyard, in the said borough, and may establish new markets and fairs for the sale of any of the before-mentioned commodities and things, upon the market square, or upon the site of such existing markets and fairs, and may enlarge and improve such site and the approaches thereto in the manner shown on the deposited plans:

They may from time to time make and maintain slaughter-houses, with all necessary fittings and conveniences, upon any lands now or hereafter belonging to them:

They may from time to time establish and provide a market and fair, or markets and fairs, for the sale of cattle and horses, upon any lands now belonging to the corporation, or which may be acquired by them under the powers of this Act:

They may make and maintain all requisite and convenient market places, market houses, weighing houses, weigh bridges, toll houses, shops, stalls, pens, sheds, yards, stables, fountains, water tanks, sewers, drains, buildings, works, approaches, and conveniences connected with such markets and fairs respectively:

A.D. 1870.

They may from time to time enter on, take, hold, and use such of the lands described in the deposited plans and book of reference as may be required for any of the purposes of this Act.

Provision for removal and re-interment of remains interred in a portion of burial ground adjoining All Saints Church.

7. And whereas it is proposed to appropriate to the purposes of this Act a portion of the burial ground adjoining All Saints Church, in the parish of All Saints in the town of Northampton, and it is expedient that provision should be made for the proper and decent removal and re-interment of any remains which may have been interred in the portion of the said burial ground so proposed to be appropriated: Therefore it shall be lawful for the heirs, executors or administrators, or relatives of any deceased person, whose remains shall have been interred in the said portion of burial ground, to cause such remains, without any faculty for that purpose, to be removed to and interred in any burial ground in which burials may lawfully take place, and the expenses of such removal and interment (not exceeding in any one case the sum of ten pounds) shall be defrayed by the corporation, and it shall be lawful for the corporation, and they are hereby required, with as much care and expedition as circumstances will allow, to cause such of the said remains as shall not have been removed by such heirs, executors, administrators, or relatives to be removed to and re-interred in the remaining portion of All Saints burial ground, subject to the orders and regulations to be made with respect thereto by the Lord Bishop of Peterborough for the time being, and all the expenses of such removal and re-interment shall be defrayed by the corporation.

Notice to be given of taking houses of labouring classes.

8. The corporation shall, not less than eight weeks before, under the powers of this Act, they take compulsorily in any parish fifteen houses or more occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring classes, as tenants or lodgers, make known their intention to take the same by placards, handbills, or other general notice placed in public view upon or within a reasonable distance from such houses, and the corporation shall not take compulsorily any such houses until they have obtained the certificate of a justice that it has been proved to his satisfaction that the corporation have made known their intention to take the same in manner herein-before required.

Power for corporation to agree with trustees of freemen's commons for substituted rights of common.

9. With regard to all rights of common belonging to the freemen of Northampton upon or over any lands which may be appropriated or taken by the corporation under the powers of this Act, it shall be lawful for the corporation on the one part, and those members of the body called the trustees of the freemen's commons who are elected by the parishes on the other part, to enter into an agreement for the setting apart by the corporation of other lands, over which such and the like rights of common may be exercised and enjoyed as are now exercised and enjoyed upon or over the lands so to be appropriated or taken as aforesaid, but no such agreement shall be valid until it has been approved of by the Inclosure Commissioners for England; and any agreement made in pursuance of this provision shall be accompanied by a map or plan of the lands so to be set apart by the corporation, and three copies of such agreement and map or plan when so approved of shall be made, and each copy shall be sealed with the common seal of the corporation, and be signed by those members of the trustees of the freemen's commons who are elected by the parishes, and one of such copies shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Northampton, another with the said Inclosure Commissioners, and the third with the corporation, and the copies so deposited with the clerk of the peace and Inclosure Commissioners respectively shall be open to public inspection, and copies thereof shall be furnished, in the same manner and on the same terms as may from time to time be in force with respect to other documents so deposited, and immediately upon the deposit of such copies of agreement as herein-before mentioned all rights of common upon or over any lands appropriated or taken by the corporation under the powers of this Act shall be extinguished and cease, and such or the like rights of common shall thenceforth be exerciseable and enjoyable upon or over the lands so set apart by the corporation, and comprised in such agreement, and shall be in full compensation for the rights of common so extinguished.

Power of corporation to fix days of holding markets and fairs.

10. Notwithstanding any provision in any Act or charter to the contrary, the corporation shall have such powers of fixing by byelaws the days and the times during each day on which the markets and fairs within the borough shall be held as are conferred in the provisions of "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the byelaws to be made by the undertakers.

General market and fair tolls: first schedule.

11. The corporation may from time to time demand and take, from any person occupying or using any shop, stall, shed, station, pen, standing, or place in any market or fair provided under this Act for the sale of meat, fish, poultry, game, butter, eggs, cheese, bacon, vegetables, fruit, hay, straw, grain, agricultural implements, timber, hides, skins, leather, baskets, or other marketable commodities, or bringing the same into such market or fair, such tolls and charges as the corporation from time to time appoint, not exceeding the tolls and charges specified in the first schedule to this Act annexed.

A.D. 1870.

Tolls for cattle and horse markets and fairs: second schedule.

12. The corporation may from time to time demand and take, from persons selling or exposing for sale cattle or horses in any market or fair provided under this Act for the sale of cattle or horses, such tolls and charges as the corporation from time to time appoint, not exceeding the tolls and charges specified in the second schedule to this Act annexed.

Slaughter-house tolls: third schedule.

13. The corporation may from time to time demand and take, for the use of the slaughter-houses which may be made and provided by them, such tolls and charges as the corporation from time to time appoint, not exceeding the tolls and charges specified in the third schedule to this Act annexed.

Weighing and measuring tolls: fourth schedule.

14. The corporation may from time to time demand and take, for the weighing or measuring of any article sold or brought for sale by weight or measure in any market or fair provided under this Act, from any person having such article weighed or measured at any weighing house or place for measuring or weighing provided by the corporation, any tolls and charges not exceeding the weighing and measuring tolls respectively specified in the fourth schedule to this Act annexed.

Power for corporation to close existing markets.

15. When and so soon as the corporation shall, under the authority of this Act, at any time or from time to time have established and provided for public use any new market or fair for the sale of cattle or horses, or of meat, fish, poultry, game, butter, eggs, cheese, bacon, vegetables, fruit, hay, straw, grain, agricultural implements, timber, hides, skins, leather, baskets, or other marketable commodities, it shall be lawful for the corporation from time to time to close, abolish, or remove, wholly or in part, any market or fair held within the limits of this Act for the sale of any cattle or horses, or of the articles or things before mentioned for the sale of which a new market or fair shall have been so established and provided by the corporation.

Byelaws as to certain matters.

16. The power vested in the council of the borough under the Municipal Corporation Acts of making byelaws for the good rule and government of the borough, and for prevention and suppression of nuisances, shall extend to authorise the council to make from time to time such byelaws and to impose such penalties as to them seem meet with respect to the following matters or any of them; (that is to say,)

To prohibit or regulate the standing of cabs and other carriages plying for hire, and of carriers carts, market carts, and other carts, waggons, and vehicles, in the market square, streets, and public places of the borough:

To prohibit or restrict and regulate the hawking, sale, or exposure for sale of any provisions, commodities, or things whatsoever in the market square, streets, and public places of the borough, or elsewhere within the limits of this Act than in a market or fair authorised by this Act:

To provide for the inspection of weights and measures, and the prevention of fraudulent use thereof, and to prescribe and regulate what articles and things shall be sold by weight, and what articles and things shall be sold by measure or by tale or number, in all markets and fairs, and in all shops and places for sale within the limits of this Act:

Provided that all byelaws made and penalties imposed in pursuance of this section shall be subject to the provisions of "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the byelaws to be made by the undertakers.

Limit of time for compulsory purchase.

17. The powers of the corporation for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act.

Power to purchase additional lands by agreement.

18. The corporation from time to time, but only by agreement, may purchase, on such terms and conditions as they think fit, any lands not exceeding fifteen acres, and any interest, easement, right of user, power, or privilege in, over, or affecting any lands which they may think expedient for any of the purposes of this Act.

Power to sell, &c. lands not wanted.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the corporation may from time to time sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any lands or property acquired by them under this Act, and not wanted for the purposes thereof, and make, execute, and do any deed, act, or thing proper for effectuating any such sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition.

Power to corporation to borrow.

20. The corporation may from time to time (in addition to any money which they are for the time being authorised to borrow independently of this Act) borrow at interest, on mortgage of the borough rates or borough fund of the borough, or (with the approbation of two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in the manner prescribed by the Municipal Corporation Acts,) on mortgage of any lands or property of the corporation, any money not exceeding in the whole the sum of forty thousand pounds, and not exceeding, for the purposes of markets and fairs for the sale of cattle and horses, the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds, as part of the said sum of forty thousand pounds.

Incorporation of parts of "Com-

21. For the purposes of such borrowing as aforesaid, the provisions of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the missioners Clauses Act" as to mortgages by corporation.

mortgages to be executed by the commissioners (so far as the same are applicable for the purposes and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act) are hereby incorporated with this Act, and for the purposes of the present enactment the term "the commissioners" used in those provisions shall mean the corporation.

Power to corporation to borrow for paying off.

22. The corporation may from time to time borrow at interest, on mortgage as aforesaid, any money necessary for repaying any principal money borrowed as aforesaid, on the same becoming repayable, and so toties quoties.

Payment off by sinking fund, &c.

23. For the purpose of paying off the money borrowed by the corporation as aforesaid, the corporation shall, every year from and after the expiration of five years next after the passing of this Act, or sooner if they think fit, pay off and discharge such amount as they think proper, not being less than two and a half per centum, of the money so borrowed, or otherwise appropriate and set apart the like amount as a sinking fund for that purpose, in manner prescribed by "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847."

Priority of existing mortgages.

24. Nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect any existing mortgages, debentures, or other securities on the property, funds, rates, or revenue of the corporation, but the same shall have priority over any mortgages on the same property, funds, rates, or revenue granted under any of the powers or provisions of this Act.

Receiver.

25. The mortgagees of the corporation may enforce payment of the arrears of principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver; and in order to authorise the appointment of a receiver the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver shall be made shall be not less than four thousand pounds in the whole.

Application of income under this Act.

26. All money received by the corporation under the authority of this Act shall be carried to a separate account, to be called the markets and fairs account, and all money so received (other than money borrowed or received as consideration for lands sold under this Act) shall be applied as follows; (that is to say,)

First, in repaying as in this Act provided the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act:

Secondly, in paying the current ordinary expenses of regulating, maintaining, and keeping up the markets, fairs, and slaughter-houses authorised by this Act, and the buildings and conveniences connected therewith respectively:

Thirdly, in paying the interest upon the principal moneys borrowed under the authority of this Act:

Fourthly, in setting apart the yearly amount by this Act prescribed as a sinking fund, as and when the same is required to be set apart:

Fifthly, in payment of any purchase money payable for lands and property purchased under the authority of this Act:

Sixthly, in executing and improving the works authorised by this Act:

Seventhly, in paying off the principal money borrowed by the corporation under this Act, and for the time being remaining due:

Lastly, the surplus remaining after the purposes aforesaid are effected shall be carried to and form part of the borough fund of the borough.

And all money borrowed by the corporation, or received by them as consideration for lands sold under this Act, shall be applied to all or any of the purposes first, fifthly, sixthly, and seventhly in this section specified.

Power to let shops, stalls, &c.

27. The corporation may from time to time let to any person any shop, stall, shed, pen, standing, or other convenience in any market or fair authorised by this Act, for any time not exceeding three years, at such rent and on such terms as they think reasonable.

Power to let tolls of markets, &c.

28. The corporation may from time to time let for any term not exceeding five years the whole or any part of the stallages, rents, tolls, and charges receivable in respect of the markets, fairs, slaughter-houses, and weighing places authorised by this Act, or any of them.

Recovery of tolls.

29. If any person liable to the payment of any stallage, rent, toll, or charge payable to the corporation under this Act does not pay the same when demanded, the corporation or their lessee, or any person authorised by the corporation or their lessee to collect the same, may seize and detain the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse in respect of which the same is payable, or any other goods, commodity, cattle, or horse belonging to the person liable to pay the same or under his charge, and if the stallage, rent, toll, or charge, and the reasonable charges of the seizure and detention and of the keeping and maintaining of the goods, commodity, or animal seized is not paid within four days from the time of seizure, or, in case of perishable articles, within six hours from the time of seizure, the corporation or their lessee may sell the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse seized, and out of the money arising thereby may pay and retain the stallage, rent, or toll, and the charges aforesaid, and those of the sale, returning the overplus (if any) to the owner of the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse seized, or such stallage, rent, or charge toll may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Evidence of byelaws.

30. A copy of any byelaws made under this Act or any Act incorporated wholly or in part therewith, in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, purporting to be sealed with the seal of the corporation, and to be certified as a true copy by the town clerk of Northampton under his hand, shall be primâ facie evidence in all courts and elsewhere of the existence, due making, and contents of such byelaws.

Several names in one warrant, &c.

31. Any number of names or sums may be included in any information, summons, warrant of distress, or notice obtained or given by the corporation for any of the purposes of this Act, and may be stated either in the body of the information, summons, warrant, or notice, or in a schedule thereto.

Costs of distress.

32. Any justice issuing a warrant of distress may order that the costs of the proceedings for the recovery of the sum ordered to be paid shall be paid by the person liable to pay such sum, and the costs shall be ascertained by the justice issuing the warrant, and shall be included in the warrant of distress for the recovery of the sum.

Authentication of notices.

33. Any summons, demand, or notice, or other such document, under this Act, may be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and if the same requires authentication by the corporation, it shall be sufficient if such authentication is certified by the town clerk of Northampton under his hand.

Publication in newspapers.

34. Any advertisement to be published under this Act, or any Act incorporated wholly or in part with this Act, shall be published by the insertion thereof in a newspaper published and circulating within the borough, and if there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper published and circulating in the county of Northampton.

Saving for general rights and remedies of corporation.

35. Nothing in this Act shall take away or abridge any right, power, or authority which the corporation have or may enjoy under the Municipal Corporation Acts, or "The Public Health Act, 1848," or otherwise independently of this Act.

Expenses of Act.

36. The costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act shall be paid by the corporation out of the borough fund of the borough, and shall be repaid to that account out of money carried to the credit of the markets and fairs account.
