CROWN PROCEEDINGS

The Northern Ireland (Crown Proceedings) Order, 1949

1949 No. 1836

Made - - - - 29*th September*, 1949
Laid before Parliament 30*th September*, 1949
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1950

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of September, 1949

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Him by section fifty-three of the Crown Proceedings Act, 1947(a), and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I

General

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Northern Ireland (Crown Proceedings) Order, 1949, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1950.

(2) In this Order, "the Act" means the Crown Proceedings Act, 1947.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

PART II

Extension of the Act to Northern Ireland

2. The provisions of the Act, other than Parts V and VI thereof, shall extend to Northern Ireland—

(a) in relation to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, with the additions, exceptions and modifications set out in Part III of this Order;

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 44. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(b) in relation to His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland, with the additions, exceptions and modifications aforesaid but subject to the further exceptions and modifications set out in Part IV of this Order.

PART III

Additions and exceptions to, and modifications of, the Act in its application to the Crown in right of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom

3.—(1) Any reference, however expressed, to an enactment shall be construed as including a reference to an enactment of the Irish Parliament or of the Parliament of Northern Ireland, and the expression "statutory duty" shall be construed accordingly.

(2) For any reference to the commencement of the Act there shall be substituted a reference to the first day of January, 1950, being the day on which this Order comes into operation; for any reference to the High Court (except a reference to that court as a prize court) or any Division thereof there shall be substituted a reference to the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland or to the corresponding Division thereof respectively; for any reference to a county court there shall be substituted a reference to a county court in Northern Ireland; for any reference to the Royal Courts of Justice there shall be substituted a reference to the Royal Courts of Justice (Ulster); for any reference to the Attorney General there shall be substituted a reference to the Attorney General for Northern Ireland; for any reference to the Solicitor for the affairs of His Majesty's Treasury there shall be substituted a reference to the Chief Crown Solicitor for Northern Ireland; and for any reference to a sheriff there shall be substituted a reference to an under-sheriff.

(3) The expression "rules of court" shall mean rules of court made by the Governor of Northern Ireland by Order in Council under and in accordance with the provisions of section sixty-one of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) Act, 1877(a), as amended by the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) (No. 2) Act, 1897(b); the expression "county court rules" shall mean county court rules made under and in accordance with the provisions of the County Courts (Salaries and Rules) Act (Northern Ireland), 1947(c), by the County Court Rules Committee established under section two of that Act or county court rules having effect by virtue of section four of that Act; and the expression "order" shall include a dismiss in the county court.

(4) The provisions of this Article shall apply to the interpretation of any provisions which by virtue of this Order are added to or substituted for any of the provisions of the Act.

4. For section four there shall be substituted the following section:—

"Application of law as to indemnity, contribution, joint and several tort-feasors, and contributory negligence.

4.—(1) Where the Crown is subject to any liability by virtue of this Part of this Act, the law for the time being in force in Northern Ireland relating to indemnity and contribution shall be enforceable by or against the Crown in respect of the liability to which it is so subject as if the Crown were a private person of full age and capacity.

(2) Without prejudice to the effect of the preceding subsection, section sixteen of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1937(d) (which relates to proceedings against, and contribution between, joint and several tortfeasors), shall bind the Crown.

(a) 40 & 41 Vict. c. 57.
(b) 60 & 61 Vict. c. 66.
(c) 1947, c. 16 (N.I.).
(d) 1 Edw. 8. & 1 Geo. 6. c. 9 (N.I.).

(3) Without prejudice to the general effect of section two of this Act, section two of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1948(a) (which amends the law relating to contributory negligence), and so much of sections four and six of that Act as relates to the said section two thereof shall bind the Crown, so however that in relation to proceedings against the Crown the references in subsection (1) of the said section four to the passing of the said Act of 1948 shall be construed as references to the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty (being the date of the coming into operation of the Northern Ireland (Crown Proceedings) Order, 1949)."

5. Section twelve shall be excepted.

6. In section thirteen, the words from "In this section" to the end shall be excepted.

7. For section fourteen there shall be substituted the following section:—

"Summary applications to High Court in certain matters concerning United Kingdom revenue.

14. Subject to and in accordance with rules of court, the Crown may apply in a summary manner to the High Court—

(a) for the payment of duty under the enactments relating to excise duties on articles manufactured and produced within the meaning of section twenty-one of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920(b);

(b) for the delivery of any accounts required to be delivered, or the furnishing of any information required to be furnished, under the said enactments or by any regulations relating to such duties;

(c) for the payment of tax under the enactments relating to purchase tax; and

(d) for the delivery of any accounts, the production of any books, or the furnishing of any information, required to be delivered, produced or furnished under the enactments relating to purchase tax."

8. For section fifteen there shall be substituted the following section:—

"Civil proceedings by or against the Crown in the county court.

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, and to any enactment limiting the jurisdiction of a county court (whether by reference to the subject matter of the proceedings to be brought or the amount sought to be recovered in the proceedings or otherwise), any civil proceedings by or against the Crown may be instituted in a county court:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the institution against the Crown of default process under section fifty-nine of the County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877(c) (which makes provision for the issue in certain circumstances of decrees by default in the county court).

(2) Any proceedings by or against the Crown in a county court shall be instituted and proceeded with in accordance with county court rules and not otherwise."

9.—(1) For subsection (1) of section seventeen there shall be substituted the following subsection:—

"(1) The Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland with the approval of the Treasury shall publish a list specifying the several departments of the

(a) 1948, c. 23 (N.I.). (b) 10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 67. (c) 40 & 41 Vict. c. 56.

Government of the United Kingdom which are authorised departments for the purposes of this Act in Northern Ireland, and the name and address for service of the person who is, or is acting for the purposes of this Act as, the solicitor in Northern Ireland for each such department, and may from time to time amend or vary the said list. The said list may in relation to any such department specify different solicitors for different types of proceedings.

Any document purporting to be a copy of a list published under this section and purporting to be printed under the superintendence or the authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office shall in any legal proceedings be received as evidence for the purpose of establishing what departments are authorised departments for the purposes of this Act, and what person is, or is acting for the purposes of this Act as, the solicitor in Northern Ireland for any such department."

(2) After subsection (3) of the said section seventeen there shall be inserted the following subsection:—

"(3A) Civil proceedings against the Crown may be instituted in Northern Ireland against the Attorney General for Northern Ireland if the alleged liability arises out of the performance of any function pursuant to an agency arrangement or the person instituting the proceedings has any reasonable doubt whether the alleged liability of the Crown arises in respect of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom or in respect of His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland."

10. Subsection (1) of section nineteen shall be excepted.

11. For paragraph (b) of the proviso to subsection (2) of section twenty there shall be substituted the following paragraphs:—

"(b) nothing in section thirty-five or fifty-seven of the County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877(a), as in force in Northern Ireland, shall have effect so as to require security to be given by the Crown, or so as to authorise the making of an order requiring security to be given by the Crown, in respect of proceedings to be removed or transferred from the county court to the High Court by virtue of either of those sections; and

(c) the provisions of section ninety-seven of the Common Law Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1856(b) (which relates to costs in actions brought in the High Court which could have been brought in the county court), or of any rule of court to the like effect shall not apply to any proceedings by the Crown."

12. After section twenty-one there shall be inserted the following section:—

"Costs in civil proceedings to which the Crown is a party.

21A.—(1) In any civil proceedings or arbitration to which the Crown is a party, the costs of and incidental to the proceedings shall be awarded in the same manner and on the same principles as in cases between subjects, and the court or arbitrator shall have power to make an order for the payment of costs by or to the Crown accordingly:

Provided that—

(a) in the case of proceedings to which by reason of any enactment or otherwise the Attorney General, a Government department or any officer of the Crown as such is authorised to be made a party, the court or arbitrator shall have regard to the nature of the proceedings and the character and circumstances in which the Attorney

(a) 40 & 41 Vict. c. 56. (b) 19 & 20 Vict. c. 102.

General, the department or officer of the Crown appears, and may in the exercise of its or his discretion order any other party to the proceedings to pay the costs of the Attorney General, department or officer, whatever may be the result of the proceedings ; and

(b) nothing in this section shall affect the power of the court or arbitrator to order, or any enactment providing for, the payment of costs out of any particular fund or property, or any enactment expressly relieving any department or officer of the Crown of the liability to pay costs.

(2) This section shall apply both in relation to proceedings pending on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty (being the date of the coming into operation of the Northern Ireland (Crown Proceedings) Order, 1949), and in relation to proceedings instituted thereafter."

13. For subsection (3) of section twenty-three there shall be substituted the following subsection:—

"(3) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this section, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall not have effect with respect to any of the following proceedings brought by or against the Crown in right of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom, that is to say:—

(a) proceedings brought by the Attorney General for Northern Ireland on the relation of some other person ;

(b) proceedings by or against the Public Trustee ;

(c) proceedings by or against the Land Purchase Trustee for Northern Ireland."

14. For the reference in subsection (1) of section twenty-four to section seventeen of the Judgments Act, 1838(a), there shall be substituted a reference to section twenty-six of the Debtors (Ireland) Act, 1840(b) ; and for the reference in subsection (3) of the said section twenty-four to section three of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1934(c), there shall be substituted a reference to section seventeen of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1937(d).

15. For the references in subsection (2) of section twenty-six to sections four and five of the Debtors Act, 1869(e), there shall be substituted respectively references to sections five and six of the Debtors Act (Ireland), 1872(f).

16.—(1) After subsection (1) of section thirty there shall be inserted the following subsection :—

"(1A) The Public Authorities Protection Act, 1893(g), shall, in its application to any civil proceedings against the Crown in Northern Ireland, have effect as if in paragraph (a) of section one thereof for any reference to six months there were substituted a reference to twelve months."

(2) In subsection (2) of the said section thirty, for the words "Subject to the provisions of the preceding subsection" there shall be substituted the words "Subject to the preceding provisions of this section".

17. For the references in subsection (2) of section thirty-one to section six of the Debtors Act, 1869, and to England there shall be substituted respectively references to section seven of the Debtors Act (Ireland), 1872, and to Northern Ireland.

(a) 1 & 2 Vict. c. 110. (b) 3 & 4 Vict. c. 105.
(c) 24 & 25 Geo. 5. c. 41. (d) 1 Edw. 8. & 1 Geo. 6. c. 9 (N.I.).
(e) 32 & 33 Vict. c. 62. (f) 35 & 36 Vict. c. 57.
(g) 56 & 57 Vict. c. 61.

18. Subsection (5) of section thirty-four shall be excepted.

19. In paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of section thirty-five, for the words "and for enabling any such proceedings to be put in proper cases into any special list which may be kept for the trial of short causes in which leave to defend is given under any such rule of court as aforesaid" there shall be substituted the words "or of any county court rule providing for process by default".

20. At the end of section thirty-seven there shall be added the following subsection:—

"(3) Any order made under section twenty-five of this Act or otherwise as the result of the passing of this Act in any proceedings brought against the Attorney General for Northern Ireland in accordance with subsection (3A) of section seventeen of this Act shall be satisfied by the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland either out of moneys provided by the Parliament of Northern Ireland or out of moneys advanced to the Ministry by the Treasury for the purpose, so however that any sum expended by the Ministry in such satisfaction shall be defrayed by the Exchequer and by the Exchequer of Northern Ireland in such proportions as may be agreed in that behalf between the Treasury and the Ministry.

If the Treasury and the Ministry are unable so to agree, the matter shall be deemed to be a matter which it is the duty of the Joint Exchequer Board to determine under the Government of Ireland Act, 1920(a), and shall be determined accordingly."

21. In subsection (2) of section thirty-eight, before the definition of "Agent" there shall be inserted the following definition:—

"'Agency arrangement' includes any arrangement (whether made in pursuance of section sixty-three of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, or otherwise) by which provision is made for the performance by a department or officer of His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland of any function (including functions under Defence Regulations) performable by a department or officer of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom or for the performance by a department or officer of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom of any function performable by a department or officer of His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland;".

22.—(1) In subsection (2) of section forty, after the words "without prejudice to the general effect of the foregoing provisions" there shall be inserted the words "but subject to the provisions of subsection (3A) of section seventeen and subsection (3) of section thirty-seven of this Act".

(2) In subsection (3) of the said section forty, in paragraph (a) for the words "otherwise than in respect of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom" there shall be substituted the words "neither in respect of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom nor in respect of His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland", and in paragraph (b) for the words "otherwise than in right of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom" there shall be substituted the words "neither in right of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom nor in right of His Majesty's Government in Northern Ireland".

23. For the Second Schedule there shall be substituted the Schedule set out in the Schedule to this Order.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 67.

PART IV
