The Nyasaland (Commissions of Inquiry) Order in Council, 1959

Made - - - -	6th April, 1959
Laid before Parliament	6th April, 1959
Coming into Operation	7th April, 1959

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 6th day of April, 1959

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in that behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890(a), or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Nyasaland (Commissions of Inquiry) Order in Council, 1959.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the seventh day of April, 1959.

(3) Save as is in this Order otherwise provided or required by the context, the Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply for the purpose of interpreting this Order as it applies for the purpose of interpreting an Act of Parliament.

Power to make provision for conduct of inquiry

2. Where a commission for inquiring in Nyasaland into any matter is appointed by a Secretary of State, the instrument by which the commission is appointed, or any instrument supplemental thereto, may make provision for the conduct of the inquiry and any matters incidental thereto and may in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, make provision for any matter for which provision is made by the Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance(c) of Nyasaland, as from time to time amended.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides that where a Secretary of State appoints a commission of inquiry in Nyasaland, he may make provision for the conduct of the inquiry.
