CHAPTER xliii.

An Act to empower the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Oswestry to make and maintain additional Waterworks; to make other provisions in relation to their Waterwork Undertaking; to borrow money; and for the revision of the Market Tolls; and for other purposes. [25th June 1885.]

A.D. 1885.

WHEREAS the borough of Oswestry in the county of Salop (in this Act called "the borough") is a municipal borough under the government of the mayor aldermen and burgesses of the borough (in this Act called "the Corporation") and the Corporation acting by their council are the urban sanitary authority for the borough:

And whereas the Corporation in their capacity as a local board were by the Oswestry Water and Sewerage Act 1865 empowered to make certain waterworks and to supply the borough and neighbourhood with water and the said Act is in this Act referred to as the Act of 1865:

And whereas the Corporation have under the provisions of the Act of 1865 constructed certain waterworks and are now supplying the borough and neighbourhood with water but the works are insufficient to meet the present and growing demands of the inhabitants within the water limits and it is expedient that the Corporation be empowered to make and maintain the additional works by this Act authorised:

And whereas it is expedient that the Corporation be empowered to pay off and redeem existing mortgages charges and annuities and to reborrow the same and to borrow further moneys for the construction of the works by this Act authorized and otherwise for the purpose of their waterworks undertaking and that the powers of the Corporation in relation to that undertaking be in other respects enlarged:

A.D. 1885.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the limits of the existing market so as to include certain open spaces belonging or reputed to belong to the Corporation and known as the Bailey Head and the Pitcher Bank and to amend the table of tolls rents and stallages contained in Schedule B. of the Oswestry Markets and Fairs Act 1848 as hereinafter provided:

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the Corporation for the purchase of land for and the execution of the works by this Act authorized and such estimates amount to the sum of ten thousand pounds:

And whereas the several works included in such estimates are permanent works within the meaning of section two hundred and thirty-four of the Public Health Act 1875:

And whereas an absolute majority of the whole number of the members of the council at a meeting held on the twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four after ten clear days notice by public advertisement of such meeting and of the purpose thereof in the "Oswestry Advertizer" a local paper published or circulating in the borough such notice being in addition to the ordinary notices required for summoning such meeting resolved that the expense in relation to promoting the Bill for this Act should be charged on the district fund and general district rate:

And whereas such resolution was published twice in the said "Oswestry Advertizer" and has received the approval of the Local Government Board:

And whereas the propriety of the promotion of the Bill for this Act was confirmed by an absolute majority of the whole number of the members of the council at a further special meeting held in pursuance of a similar notice on the fifth day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five being not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill for this Act in the Houses of Parliament:

And whereas the owners and ratepayers of the borough by resolution passed in the manner prescribed by the Public Health Act 1875 (Schedule III) have consented to the promotion of the Bill for this Act:

And whereas plans and sections describing the lines situations and levels of the works authorized by this Act and a book of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners lessees or reputed lessees and of the occupiers of lands required or which may be taken for the purposes or under the powers of this Act have been deposited with the respective clerks of the peace for the counties of Salop and Denbigh and are in this Act referred to as the deposited plans sections and book of reference:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—
