5. The Control of Paper (No. 19) Order, 1940(a), the Control of Paper (No. 77) Order, 1946(b), and, in so far as it applies to newspapers, the Control of Paper (No. 70) (Economy) Order, 1945(c), are hereby revoked provided that any current licence issued under the last mentioned Order and relating to newspapers shall continue to have effect under the corresponding provisions of this Order.

6. This Order may be cited as the Control of Paper (Newspapers) (Economy) Order, 1949, and shall come into operation on 1st day of July, 1949.

Dated this 22nd day of June, 1949.

Arthur G. Bottomley,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order supersedes the Control of Paper (No. 19) Order, 1940, the Control of Paper (No. 77) Order, 1946, and the provisions of the Control of Paper (No. 70) (Economy) Order, 1945, relating to the publication of newspapers.

The total weight of paper which may be used or consumed in the production, during each four monthly period beginning on the 1st day of July, the 1st day of November or the 1st day of March in any year, of any newspaper not published between the 1st day of September, 1938, and the 16th day of August, 1940, is 16 cwt.

The maximum page area and the maximum number of pages of a newspaper which was published before the 16th day of August, 1940, are controlled (Articles 2 and 3).

The Board of Trade, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 55 and 55AA of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional

(a) S.R. & O. 1940 (No. 1102) II, p. 1184.
(b) S.R. & O. 1946 (No. 1540) II, p. 1369.
(c) S.R. & O. 1945 (No. 1431) II, p. 1451.

Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), hereby order as follows:—

Maximum size of coupons.

1. No person shall print or make or cause or permit to be printed or made any coupon or entry form relating to any pool betting scheme or fixed odds betting scheme on paper the size of which exceeds 50 square inches.

Prohibition of free distribution of coupons.

2. No person shall distribute or cause or permit to be distributed any coupon or entry form relating to any pool betting scheme or fixed odds betting scheme otherwise than to a person who has before such distribution paid a sum not less than one halfpenny in respect of each such coupon or entry form.

Control of distribution and use of paper in betting schemes.

3.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Trade hereunder and in accordance with any condition attaching thereto no person who carries on a business which includes the operation of a pool betting scheme shall—

(a) distribute or cause or permit to be distributed in connection with any such scheme any coupon, copy coupon, entry form or advertising circular or any new envelope or new label intended to facilitate the return of coupons or entry forms, or

(b) use or cause or permit to be used in the distribution of any coupon, copy coupon, entry form or advertising circular for the purpose of any such scheme any new envelope or new label.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall prohibit or restrict the distribution or use during any period of four months commencing on the first day of July, the first day of November or the first day of March in any year of a total quantity by weight of paper not exceeding 2 cwts.

Records.

4.—(1) Every person who carries on a business which includes the operation of a pool betting scheme shall keep at his principal place of business

(a) records containing separate particulars of the quantity by number and weight of each of the following classes of paper distributed or caused or permitted to be distributed by him in each week, namely,

coupons,

copy coupons,

entry forms,

each description or form of advertising circular,

new envelopes intended to facilitate the return of coupons and entry forms, new labels intended to facilitate the return of coupons and entry forms; and

(b) records containing separate particulars of the quantity by number and by weight of new envelopes and new labels used or caused or permitted to be used in the distribution of any coupon, copy coupon, entry form or advertising circular for the purpose of any such scheme.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945 (Nos. 1611 and 1618) II, pp. 39 and 48.
(b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55.

(2) Every entry contained in any such record shall be preserved by the person required to keep that record for a period of eighteen months from the end of the period to which that entry relates.

Interpretation.

5. In this Order—

"advertising circular" means anything composed of or containing paper and distributed in substantially identical form to more than twelve persons for purposes of advertising;

"new envelope" means an envelope not previously used, and does not include an envelope produced from used coupons or entry forms previously distributed to and returned by persons participating in a pool betting scheme;

"new label" means a label not previously used;

"paper" includes all descriptions (whether homogeneous or laminated and whether coated or uncoated) of paper, paperboard, wallboard, fibreboard, cellulose wadding, cellulose film and other similar material whether manufactured wholly or mainly either from vegetable fibres or a pulp thereof, or both from such fibres and such pulp; and

"print" includes printing by means of any duplicating or silk screen process or by any other means.

Revocation.

6. The Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1947(a), is hereby revoked.

Citation and commencement.

7. This Order may be cited as the Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1949, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, 1949.

Dated this 13th day of June, 1949.

John Edwards,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which supersedes the Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1947, restricts the size of coupons and entry forms relating to pool or fixed odds betting schemes to 50 square inches, and prohibits the free distribution of such coupons and entry forms.

The Order also prohibits subject to licence the distribution of coupons, copy coupons, advertising circulars, and new envelopes and labels, intended to facilitate the return of coupons or entry forms, and the use of new envelopes and labels. No licence, however, is required for the distribution or use in these ways of not more than 2 cwts. of paper in any of the 4-monthly periods specified in the Order. Provision is made for the keeping of records.
