1952 No. 368

The Parish Council Election (No. 2) Rules, 1952

Made - - - -	22nd February, 1952
Laid before Parliament	26th February, 1952
Coming into Operation	1st March, 1952

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by section twenty-nine and subsection (1) of section one hundred and sixty-five of the Representation of the People Act, 1949(a), I hereby make the following Rules for the conduct of an election of parish councillors and of the chairman of a parish council:—

1. In Rule 3 of the Parish Council Election Rules, 1952(b), for the words "the following modification shall have effect" there shall be substituted the following words:—

"the following adaptation and modification shall have effect:—

For any reference to the clerk of the authority for which the election is held there shall be substituted a reference to the clerk of the council of the rural district in which the parish is situate."

2. These Rules may be cited as the Parish Council Election (No. 2) Rules, 1952, and shall come into operation on the first day of March, 1952.

David Maxwell Fyfe,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
22nd February, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules provide that those notices which under the Representation of the People Act, 1949, would have been sent to the clerk of the parish council, in particular, the return and declaration as to election expenses, are to be sent instead to the clerk of the rural district council who is the returning officer for an election of parish councillors.
