The Patents Etc. (Argentina and Uruguay) (Convention) Order 1967

Made - - -	23*rd March* 1967
Coming into Operation	23*rd March* 1967

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of March 1967
Present,
The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 68 of the Patents Act 1949(a), section 13 of the Registered Designs Act 1949(b), and section 91A of the Patents and Designs Act 1907(c), as amended(d), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. Argentina and Uruguay are Convention countries for all the purposes of the said Acts.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889(e) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Patents Etc. (Argentina and Uruguay) (Convention) Order 1967.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Governments of Argentina and Uruguay have given notice of their accession to the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property (as revised in Lisbon in 1958).

This Order discharges the Convention obligations of the United Kingdom, which is a party to the Convention, by declaring those countries to be Convention countries for all the purposes of the Acts relating to Patents, Designs and Trade Marks.
