Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said sections forty-nine and ninety-five and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Article 1 of the Patents (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1950, as amended by the Patents (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1951, shall have effect with the substitution, for the reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, of a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

2. This Order may be cited as the Patents (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1952.

1952 No. 2107

The Patents Etc. (Indonesia) (Convention) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 4th December, 1952

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of December, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by virtue of the provisions of the Patents Act, 1949(a), the Registered Designs Act, 1949(b), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1907(c), as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1932(d), the Patents etc. (International Conventions) Act, 1938(e), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1949(f), (all hereinafter referred to as "the Acts") it is enacted that with a view to the fulfilment of a treaty, convention, arrangement or engagement, Her Majesty may by Order in Council declare that any country specified in the Order is a Convention country for the purposes either of all or of some only of the provisions of the Acts:

And Whereas there was ratified a Convention done at London on the 2nd June, 1934, in revision of the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property signed at Paris on the 20th March, 1883:

And Whereas the Republic of Indonesia has acceded to the said Convention done at London on the 2nd June, 1934, and it is expedient that the Republic of Indonesia should be declared to be a Convention country for the purposes of all the provisions of the Acts:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon Her as aforesaid and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared as follows:—

1. The Republic of Indonesia is a Convention country for the purposes of all the provisions of the Acts.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(g), shall apply to this Order as if it were an Act of Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order declares Indonesia to be a Convention country for the purposes of the Acts governing Patents, Designs and Trade Marks.

PEACE TREATIES

1952 No. 862

The Japanese Treaty of Peace Order, 1952

Made - - - -	29*th April*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	30*th April*, 1952
Coming into Operation	7*th May*, 1952

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 29th day of April, 1952

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas at San Francisco on the eighth day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, a Treaty of Peace with Japan (hereinafter referred to as " the Treaty ") and a Protocol thereto (hereinafter referred to as " the Protocol ") were signed on behalf of His late Majesty:

And Whereas by Section 1 of the Japanese Treaty of Peace Act, 1951(a), (hereinafter referred to as " the Act ") it was provided that His late Majesty might make such appointments, establish such offices, make such Orders in Council and do such things as should appear to Him to be necessary for carrying out the Treaty and Protocol, and for giving effect to any of the provisions thereof, and that any Order in Council made under the Act might provide that persons contravening or failing to comply with the provisions of the Order should be guilty of offences against that Section, and that (except in so far as any such Order might provide for lesser penalties) any person guilty of an offence against that Section should be liable to such penalties as were therein mentioned:

And Whereas the Treaty and Protocol contain the provisions set out in the First Schedule to this Order, and it is expedient for giving effect to the aforesaid provisions of the Treaty and Protocol that the provisions herein contained should have effect:

And Whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means Her Majesty has jurisdiction in the territories specified in the Second Schedule hereto, which territories are in this Order together referred to as " the Protected Territories ", and is pleased by virtue and in exercise of the power vested in Her by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890(b), or otherwise to extend the provisions of this Order to the Protected Territories.

(a) 15 & 15 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2. c. 6. (b) 53 & 54 Vict. c. 37.
