Coming into Operation 23*rd October* 1963

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October 1963

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 68 of the Patents Act 1949(a), section 13 of the Registered Designs Act 1949(b), and section 91A of the Patents and Designs Act 1907(c), as amended(d), by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The Republic of the Ivory Coast is a Convention country for all the purposes of the said Acts.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889(e) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Patents Etc. (Ivory Coast) (Convention) Order 1963.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Government of the Republic of the Ivory Coast has given formal notice of its accession to the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property (as revised in Lisbon in 1958) in its own right. The Republic of the Ivory Coast was previously a Convention country as a French colony.

The United Kingdom is a party to the Convention and, in order to discharge the Convention obligations of the United Kingdom, this Order declares the Republic to be a Convention country for all the purposes of the Acts relating to Patents, Designs and Trade Marks.
