And whereas by section ninety-five of the said Act it is amongst other things provided that an Order in Council under that Act may be varied by a subsequent Order in Council and by subsection (3) of the said section forty-nine it is provided that a draft of any Order in Council made thereunder shall be laid before Parliament and shall not be submitted to Her Majesty except in pursuance of an Address presented by each House of Parliament praying that the Order be made:

And whereas by Orders in Council(a) made under the said sections forty-nine and ninety-five the said Order of 1950 was so varied as to postpone the ending of the period of emergency current at the making thereof until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-six:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said subsection (3), a draft of this Order has been laid before Parliament and an Address has been presented by each House of Parliament praying that the Order be made:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said sections forty-nine and ninety-five, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Article 1 of the Patents (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1950, as amended by subsequent Orders, shall have effect with the substitution, for the reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-six, of a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.
