The Payment of Teachers' Salaries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1974 provide for the payment, other than by the Department of Education, of certain full-time teachers and of part-time teachers. These Regulations amend the Regulations of 1974 to provide that full-time teachers employed in institutions of further education who undertake additional teaching duties shall be paid for such duties by the board by which they are employed.

The regulations have retrospective effect by virtue of section 18 of the Administrative and Financial Provisions Act (Northern Ireland 1962).
