"paper" includes all descriptions (whether homogeneous or laminated and whether coated or uncoated) of paper, paperboard, wallboard, fibreboard, cellulose wadding, cellulose film and other similar material whether manufactured wholly or mainly either from vegetable fibres or a pulp thereof, or both from such fibres and such pulp; and

"print" includes printing by means of any duplicating or silk screen process or by any other means.

(2) The Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1949(a), and the Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) (Amendment) Order, 1950(b), are hereby revoked:

Provided that any current licence granted thereunder shall continue to have effect as if it had been granted under this Order.

Citation and commencement

5. This Order may be cited as the Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1950, and shall come into operation on the 17th day of July, 1950.

Dated this 6th day of July, 1950.

Hervey Rhodes,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which supersedes the Paper (Use in Betting Schemes) Order, 1949, as amended, restricts the size of coupons and entry forms relating to pool or fixed odds betting schemes to 60 (previously 50) square inches.

The Order also prohibits subject to licence the distribution of coupons, copy coupons, advertising circulars, and new envelopes and labels, intended to facilitate the return of coupons or entry forms, and the use of new envelopes and labels. No licence, however, is required for the distribution or use in these ways of not more than 4 (previously 2) cwts. of paper in any of the 4-monthly periods specified in the Order. Provision is made for the keeping of records.

(32) PETROLEUM

The Control of Petroleum (Amendment) Order, 1950

1950 No. 996

Made - - - -	16th June, 1950
Laid before Parliament	20th June, 1950
Coming into Operation	26th June, 1950

The Minister of Fuel and Power in pursuance of regulations fifty-five and ninety-eight of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), hereby makes the following order:—

1. The Control of Petroleum Order, 1944(c), as amended by the Control of Petroleum (Amendment) Order, 1948(d), shall have effect subject to the modifications specified in this order.

2. In article eight (which restricts the disposal of petroleum) the following sub-paragraph shall be substituted for sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (1):—

"(c) in pursuance of a contract made not more than one month previously, for consumption by the person to whom the disposal is made".

3. Articles ten and eleven (which impose restrictions on the treatment, use and blending of liquid paraffin) shall cease to have effect.

4. This order shall come into operation on the twenty-sixth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty, and may be cited as the Control of Petroleum (Amendment) Order, 1950.

Dated this sixteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Philip Noel-Baker,
Minister of Fuel and Power.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of this order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the provisions of the Control of Petroleum Order, 1944, as amended by the Control of Petroleum (Amendment) Order, 1948, the wholesale and retail disposal of kerosene (other than mineral vaporising oil) was prohibited except under licence. This order removes the restriction, in so far as concerns retail disposal under short-term contracts.

This order also removes the restrictions imposed by the order of 1944 on the treatment, use and blending of liquid paraffin.
