EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Section 6 of the Appropriation Act, 1957, provides that, subject to such exemptions as may be provided by or under rules made by the Treasury by statutory instrument, a person shall not receive any payment out of moneys provided by Parliament for half-pay or for navy, army, air force or civil non-effective services unless the declaration prescribed by rules made by the Treasury has been made.

These Rules amend the Pensioners' Declarations Rules, 1958, which prescribe the declaration to be made and provide for certain exemptions. The only change is the addition of a provision that it will not be necessary to make declarations in respect of non-recurrent payments such as marriage gratuities, death gratuities and " lump " sums.
