EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules amend the rules governing the procedure of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals by increasing from forty to fifty shillings the maximum allowances payable to an appellant or his attendant for loss of time and by providing for the nomination by the Lord Chancellor of a person to act for the President. The Rules also make minor amendments consequential on earlier amending Rules and on a change in the address of the Pensions Appeal Office.
