arising from the Truro Chapter endowment fund pay to the incumbent of any honorary canonry an annual sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Truro Cathedral endowment fund.

12. A Truro Cathedral endowment fund may be founded to be held upon trust for the maintenance of the fabric of the cathedral church and for defraying the expenses of the organist, choir, and sextons, and the lighting and cleaning of the cathedral church, and all other expenses incident to the performance of divine service therein, and the dean and chapter shall have full power to sell (discharged from all trusts), invest, manage, lease, and otherwise deal with the fund and the property in which it may for the time being be invested in such manner as they may deem most expedient for the purposes of the trust.

Transfer of advowsons from Dean and Chapter of Exeter to Dean and Chapter of Truro. 33 & 34 Vict. c. 39.

13. The ownership of all or any advowsons or advowson, and every or any other right of patronage in any spiritual preferment within the diocese of Truro belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, may be transferred from such dean and chapter to the Dean and Chapter of Truro, and such transfer may be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Act thirty-third and thirty-fourth Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, but it shall not be necessary for the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to ascertain or to state in any scheme submitted by them to Her Majesty in Council for effecting such transfer that such transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in any parish or district in or in respect of which any such right of patronage or advowson exists or arises.

Patronage of benefices belonging to dean and chapter.

14. The patronage of all benefices belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Truro shall be exercised with the consent of the general chapter in accordance with such regulations as may from time to time be made by the general chapter with the approval of the bishop, to be given under his hand in writing, and a minute in writing under the hand of the president shall be sufficient evidence of any act or resolution of the general chapter.

If new parish church substituted south aisle of cathedral church to cease to be parish church.

15. If hereafter, with the approval of the rector and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary, a new parish church shall be erected and shall be duly consecrated, the south aisle of the cathedral church shall cease to be the parish church, and shall be deemed to be a part of the cathedral church in the same manner and as fully as if it had never been used as a parochial church.

CHAPTER 13.

An Act to extend, in certain cases, the provisions of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and to extend and otherwise amend the provisions of the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872. [5th July 1887.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Pensions (Colonial Service) Act, 1887, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and with the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872. Short title and construction.

2. Where a person who has been employed in any office in the permanent civil service of a colony has been employed also in some Imperial civil capacity, his service in the said office shall for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872, and the Acts amending the said Acts, be deemed to be service in the permanent civil service of the State, and the said office shall be deemed to be an office in a public department, and the said person shall, subject as herein-after provided, be qualified to receive a pension accordingly. Application of Superannuation Acts to Colonial civil service. 22 Vict. c. 26. 28 & 29 Vict. c. 113. 35 & 36 Vict. c. 29.

Provided that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall determine the portion of every such pension which shall be paid from the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or moneys voted by Parliament, but no payment shall be made therefrom in respect of any employment in the permanent civil service of a colony.

The expression "Imperial civil capacity" in this section means the permanent civil service of the State, and also the administration of the government of a colony within the meaning of the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Act, 1865.

3. A person shall not receive by way of pension under the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872, an amount which, together with any pension for service in the permanent civil service of the State or of a colony, exceeds the sum of one thousand pounds a year, or two-thirds of the salary and emoluments of his office in that service, whichever is greater. But his pension under the said Acts shall not be reduced by reason of his pension in respect of the said service being an emolument within the meaning of section seven of the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Act, 1865. Provision as to pensions under 28 & 29 Vict. c. 113., and 35 & 36 Vict. c. 29.

4. Any pension to be granted in pursuance of section ten of the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Act, 1865, as amended by this Act, to a person who has administered the government of any colony or colonies shall be computed, according to the provisions of the Superannuation Act, 1859, on the salary and emoluments of his office in the permanent civil service of the State or of a colony, and not on the salary received by him in respect of the administration of the said government. Mode of computing superannuation allowance to be granted in certain cases.

5. Whereas by the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872, provision is made for retiring pensions to persons who have administered the government of any of Her Majesty's Colonies, and it is expedient to extend the said Acts to Her Majesty's High Commissioner in Cyprus: Be it therefore enacted as follows: Application of 28 & 29 Vict. c. 113. and 35 & 36 Vict. c. 29. to High Commissioner in Cyprus.

A pension may be granted in pursuance and subject to the provisions of the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872, as amended by this or any other Act, to a person who has, either before or after the passing of this Act, administered the government of Cyprus as Her Majesty's High Commissioner, and those Acts shall apply as if Cyprus were a colony within the meaning thereof, and were within Her Majesty's dominions.

Definition of permanent civil service of a colony.

6. For the purposes of this Act a person shall be deemed to be employed in the permanent civil service of a colony if he holds any permanent office in the service of Her Majesty in the government of any colony as qualifies him to receive a pension out of the revenues of such colony.

Provision against double pensions.

7. A person shall not receive a pension under the Colonial Governors (Pensions) Acts, 1865 and 1872, or this Act, and also under section twelve of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

Explanation of terms.

8. The expressions "permanent civil service of the State," "permanent civil service of Her Majesty," and "permanent civil service of the Crown," are hereby declared to have the same meaning, and this Act and any enactment relating to salaries and pensions shall be construed accordingly.

In this Act "pension" includes superannuation allowance.

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to apply the sum of thirteen million six hundred and seventy-five thousand six hundred and fifty-nine pounds out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

[5th July 1887.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Issue of 13,675,659*l.* out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st March 1888.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight the sum of thirteen million six hundred and seventy-five thousand six hundred and fifty-nine pounds.

Power to the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Commissioners of the Treasury may borrow from time to time on the credit of the said sum any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of thirteen million six hundred and seventy-five thousand six hundred and fifty-nine pounds, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than
