ANNO SEXTO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

Cap. lxix.

An Act to enable Charles Herbert Earl Manvers to endow the Chapelry of Perlethorpe in the Parish of Edwinstowe in the County of Nottingham, to create the same a separate Benefice, and to vest the Nomination of the Incumbents thereof in the said Earl and his Heirs. [21st June 1836.]

WHEREAS the Parish of Edwinstowe in the County of Nottingham and Diocese of York is a very extensive Parish, with a large Population, and containing Three Chapels of Ease besides the Parish Church, and the Duties incumbent on the Vicar thereof are therefore very numerous, and cannot be discharged adequately to the Spiritual Wants of the Inhabitants according to the existing legal Provision for the same: And whereas One of the Chapelries in the said Parish, called the Chapelry of Perlethorpe, is only entitled by Law to a Service on alternate Sundays in the Chapel appertaining thereto, and the said Chapel is distant nearly Three Miles from the Parish Church, and was built by the Ancestor of the Right Honourable Charles Herbert Earl Manvers for the Accommodation as well of the Inhabitants of the said Chapelry as of himself and his Family residing at his Mansion House in the said Parish, situate in the immediate Vicinity of the said Chapel, and the said Charles Herbert Earl Manvers is now desirous of securing for them perpetually the Benefit of regular Services, and of constituting a separate Benefice by Endowment of the said Chapelry, and of vesting in himself and his Heirs the Nomination of the Ministers thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Aid of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Charles Herbert Earl Manvers to endow or procure to be endowed the said Chapelry of Perlethorpe with an Annuity of the yearly Value of One hundred Pounds, secured upon Land, Money in the Funds, or other Hereditaments, as a Stipend to the Minister thereof for the Time being, and to provide an adequate Sum, to be secured to the Satisfaction of the Bishop of the Diocese, for the Repairs of the said Chapel and for the perpetual Maintenance of the same; and upon such Annuity being so secured and such Provision for the Repairs and Maintenance of the said Chapel being so made, within Twelve Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, to the Satisfaction of the Bishop of the Diocese, it shall thereupon be lawful for the said Bishop by Writing under his Hand and Seal to declare that such Chapel so endowed shall thenceforth be a Perpetual Curacy subject to Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, but separate from and independent of the Parish Church; and such Declaration shall be registered in the Registry of the Diocese.

Power to Earl Manvers to endow the Chapelry.

The Chapelry to be a distinct Parish, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Chapelry, together with the aforesaid Mansion House of the said Charles Herbert Earl Manvers, shall be thenceforth a separate and distinct Parish for all Spiritual Purposes, and that the Right of nominating a Minister thereto shall, from and after the aforesaid Declaration of the said Bishop, be vested in the said Charles Herbert Earl Manvers and his Heirs for ever (saving always the Rights of the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln as Rector, and of the Vicar of Edwinstowe for the Time being, to all Tithes or other Profits now legally due or accruing to them respectively from the said Chapelry).

One Fourth of the Seats to be free.

III. And be it further enacted, That One Fourth Part of the Seats in the said Chapel shall be free Seats.

Public Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.
