CAP. XIX.

An Act to amend the Petty Sessions Act (Ireland), 1851, as to the backing of Warrants.

[31st May 1867.]

WHEREAS by the Petty Sessions Act (Ireland), 1851, certain Provisions were made for the backing of Warrants for Execution by the Inspector General or by either of the Deputy Inspectors General of Constabulary in Ireland: 14 & 15 Vict. c. 93.

And whereas the Number of the said Deputy Inspectors General of Constabulary has since been reduced to One, and there are Three Assistant Inspectors General of Constabulary:

And whereas it is expedient that in the Absence of the said Inspector General and Deputy Inspector General of Constabulary the Assistant Inspectors General of Constabulary should have the same Power to back Warrants for Execution as by the said recited Act were given to the said Inspector General and Deputy Inspectors General:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Assistant Inspectors General of Constabulary to back Warrants in Absence of Inspector General and Deputy Inspector General.

1. That in the Absence of the Inspector General and Deputy Inspector General of Constabulary it shall be lawful for any one of the Assistant Inspectors General of Constabulary in Ireland to back, endorse, and transmit for Execution all Warrants issued under the said recited Act in like Manner as the said Inspector General and Deputy Inspectors General were thereby authorized to do, and thereupon the same shall and may be executed in like Manner as a Warrant backed by the said Inspector General or Deputy Inspector General under the recited Act.
