EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Scheme amends the provisions of the Pneumoconiosis and Byssinosis Benefit Scheme, 1952, relating to the amount of the increase of an allowance in respect of a wife. The Pneumoconiosis and Byssinosis Benefit Act, 1951, under which the Scheme is made, requires this increase to be an amount equal to the increase which "would be payable under Section 18" of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946. The existing Scheme specifies the figure of 16s. which is that mentioned in the 1946 Act. The present amendment brings the wording of the Scheme into line with that of the 1951 Act, and ensures that the required relationship will be maintained even if the Industrial Injuries rate is changed by future legislation.
