The Police (Amendment) Regulations 1982

Made - - - - -	1*st March* 1982
Laid before Parliament	9*th March* 1982
Coming into Operation	1*st April* 1982

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 33 of the Police Act 1964(a) and after furnishing the Police Negotiating Board for the United Kingdom with a draft of the Regulations in accordance with section 2(1) of the Police Negotiating Board Act 1980(b), I hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Amendment) Regulations 1982.

2. These Regulations shall come into operation on 1st April 1982 and shall have effect for the purposes of Regulation 4 as from 1st July 1981.

3. In these Regulations any reference to the principal Regulations is a reference to the Police Regulations 1979(c).

4. In Regulation 36 of the principal Regulations and in paragraph 3(2) of Schedule 4 thereto for the words "£588" there shall be substituted the words "£657".

5. In Regulation 65 of the principal Regulations for paragraph (3) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(3) A member of a police force below the rank of superintendent who, in any year, has been required to perform duties normally performed by a member of the force of a higher rank than his own for 14 complete days shall be granted, in respect of each further complete day in that year on which he is required to perform such duties, a temporary duty allowance at a rate equal to the difference between his rate of pay and the lowest rate of pay to which he would be entitled on promotion to the higher rank:

(a) 1964 c. 48. (b) 1980 c. 10.
(c) S.I. 1979/1470; the relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1980/803, 1455, 1981/41, 1371.

Provided that where an allowance is payable under this paragraph and the higher rank is that of superintendent or above there shall be no entitlement to an allowance, or time off, under Regulation 26 or 27 in respect of such duties but a member who is required to do duty on a public holiday or rostered rest day shall be granted a day's leave for each such day.".

W. S. I. Whitelaw,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office.
1st March 1982.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations, which, save for Regulation 4, take effect on 1st April 1982, amend the Police Regulations 1979 in respect of London weighting and temporary duty allowance.

Regulation 4 increases the yearly London weighting from £588 to £657 and takes effect on 1st July 1981 (retrospection is authorised by section 33(4) of the Police Act 1964).

Regulation 5 has two purposes. First it provides that an officer up to and including the rank of an inspector who is entitled to a temporary duty allowance for performing the duties of a higher rank will always receive an allowance equal to the difference between his own rate of pay and the rate of pay to which he would be entitled if he were promoted to the higher rank. Secondly it provides that, where an officer is entitled to such an allowance for performing the duties of the rank of superintendent or above, he shall not be entitled to allowances or time off in respect of overtime or a public holiday or rostered rest day but, where such duties are required to be performed on a public holiday or rostered rest day, he shall be entitled to a day's leave.
