One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

New St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh.
29th November 1982.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations further amend the Police Cadets (Scotland) Regulations 1968. Regulation 4 removes the requirement that an applicant be a British subject or citizen of the Republic of Ireland, and lowers from 19 years to 18 years 6 months the age at which he must, on application, satisfy the chief constable that he is likely to be qualified for appointment as constable.

Regulation 5 extends the right of a cadet to a personal interview with the chief constable or the deputy chief constable or an assistant chief constable to every case in which the chief constable is considering requiring his resignation, for whatever reason.

Regulation 6 increases the period of sick leave which a cadet may take without a certificate from a registered medical practitioner to 7 days. Previously this period was 3 days, subject to an annual aggregate of 7 days.

Regulation 7 increases the stockings allowance for women police cadets from £12 per year to £22 per year with effect from 1st February 1981.

Regulation 8 increases the pay of police cadets with effect from 1st September 1982.

Regulation 9 increases the charges payable by cadets for board and lodging provided by police authorities.

The retrospective effect of regulations 7 and 8 is authorised by section 27(2) of the Police (Scotland) Act 1967.
