1960 No. 370 (S. 15)

The Police (Common Police Services) (Scotland) Order, 1960

Made - - - -	3rd March, 1960
Laid before Parliament	10th March, 1960
Coming into Operation	1st April, 1960

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by subsection (6) of section 29 of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, and after consultation with the associations appearing to me to be representative of police authorities, I hereby order as follows:—

1. Subsection (5) of section 29 of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956, (which provides for the recovery by the Secretary of State from police authorities and joint police committees of one half of the expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in establishing and maintaining a central training institution) shall apply to the expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in providing the following services for the purposes of police forces generally, that is to say:—

(a) the Police (Scotland) Examinations Board;

(b) police representative and negotiating machinery;

(c) the Scottish Criminal Record Office.

2. This Order may be cited as the Police (Common Police Services) (Scotland) Order, 1960, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1960.

Dated this third day of March, 1960.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order provides that one half of the expenses incurred by the Secretary of State on certain common police services shall be recoverable from police authorities and joint police committees. The services concerned are the Police (Scotland) Examinations Board which conducts promotions examinations for the Scottish police, the representative and negotiating machinery for the police service and the Scottish Criminal Record Office which maintains central records of criminal convictions, etc., in Scotland.
