EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules consolidate with minor amendments the Rules set out in Rule 35 (1). By reason of the principal amendments of substance, the poison 6-morpholino-4:4-diphenylheptane-3-one and its salts will be among the poisons in the Fourth Schedule (and the sale thereof will, therefore, be subject to the restrictions set out in Rule 12), insecticides and fungicides containing dinitrocresols will no longer be exempted from the provisions of the Pharmacy and Poisons Act, 1933, and of the Rules (see the Third Schedule), and the containers of insecticides and fungicides containing dinitrocresols or certain compounds of phosphorous will be required to bear a specified label (see the Seventh Schedule).

1. POLICE REGULATIONS

The Police (Consolidation) (Amendment) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 1245

Made - - - - 30*th June*, 1949
Coming into Operation 1*st July*, 1949

I, the Right Honourable James Chuter Ede, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Police Act, 1919(a), hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. In paragraph (3) of Regulation 20B of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948(b), for the words "detective allowance" there shall be substituted the words "detective duty allowance, detective expenses allowance".

2. In Regulation 23 of the said Regulations the words "(except any additional or any special increment which is subject to good conduct as provided in the Regulations relating to pay)" and paragraph (2) of Regulation 27A of the said Regulations shall be omitted :

Provided that for the purposes of Regulation 22 of these Regulations they shall be deemed not to have been omitted.

3. In paragraph (2) of Regulation 28 of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948, for the words "means pensionable service and service as an auxiliary" there shall be substituted the words "includes service as an auxiliary but does not include service during which the member of a police force is below the age of twenty".

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 46. (b) S.I. 1948 (No. 1216) I, p. 3370.

4. In paragraph (2) of Regulation 32A(a) of the said Regulations for the words " Police Pensions Regulations, 1948 " there shall be substituted the words " Police Pensions Regulations, 1949(b) ".

5. For Regulations 34 to 40(c) of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Regulations:—

" 34.—(1) The normal daily period of duty of a member of a police force to whom this Regulation applies shall be eight hours and in addition any time occupied in reporting at the appointed place for duty before a tour of duty begins.

(2) Where the normal period of duty is performed in one tour of duty an interval of forty-five minutes shall normally be allowed for refreshment.

(3) This Regulation shall apply to a member of a police force who is not—

(b) employed in duties which have been specially excepted by the Secretary of State, or

(c) paid a detective duty allowance.

35.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, where a member of a police force to whom Regulation 34 applies remains on duty after his tour of duty ends or is recalled to duty between two tours of duty, he shall be granted, if and as soon as the exigencies of duty in the opinion of the chief officer of police permit, in respect of each unit of time during which he remains on duty after his tour of duty ends or after being so recalled (hereafter in these Regulations referred to as " overtime ") an equal period of time off and in addition for each three units of overtime in any week an additional quarter of an hour of time off.

(2) If in respect of the overtime during any week time off is not granted within such time (not exceeding three months) after the said week as the chief officer of police may fix, the member if he is below the rank of inspector shall be granted for each four units of overtime worked during that week for which time off has not been granted an allowance of 4s. 9d. if the member is a station sergeant or sergeant and 4s. 0d. if the member is an acting sergeant or constable, and after the time so fixed any right to time off in respect of that week shall cease.

(3) In computing any period of overtime for the purposes of this Regulation—

(a) where the member is engaged in casual escort duty, account shall be taken only of the time during which he is in charge of the prisoner and such other time during the period of the said escort duty as the chief officer of police may allow ;

(b) where the tour or tours of duty does not or do not amount in the aggregate to more than the normal period of duty, no account shall be taken of any overtime except so much as together with the tour or tours of duty exceeds the normal period of duty ;

(c) no account shall be taken of any overtime for which the member receives an allowance under Regulation 73 or 75 ;

(d) where a member is recalled to duty, the period of overtime shall include the time occupied by the member in going from and returning to his home not exceeding such reasonable limit as may be fixed by the chief officer of police ;

(a) ee S.I. 1948 (No. 2734) I, p. 3401. (b) S.I. 1949 No. 1241, p. 3331 below.

(e) where a member who has completed a full tour of night duty is recalled to duty before 3.30 p.m., he shall be deemed, if the period of overtime worked on that occasion amounts to less than sixteen units of overtime, to have worked in respect of that period a period of overtime equal to sixteen units of overtime.

(4) For the purposes of this Regulation—

references to a member recalled to duty shall not include a reference to a member who is only warned to be in readiness for duty if required ;

the expression " unit " means a complete quarter of an hour ;

the expression " week " means that period of seven days beginning with such day as is fixed by the chief officer of police.

36.—(1) Every member of a police force shall, so far as the exigencies of duty permit, be granted a day's leave on each public holiday.

(2) Every member of a police force below the rank of superintendent who is required to do duty on a public holiday or on a day which would otherwise have been a weekly rest day under the provisions of the Police (Weekly Rest Day) Act, 1910(a), shall be granted, if and as soon as the exigencies of duty permit, time off equal to one-and-a-half times the period of completed hours of duty on each such day.

For the purposes of this Regulation a member of a police force who is paid a detective duty allowance in respect of duty on a public holiday or on a day which would otherwise have been a rest day under the provisions of the Police (Weekly Rest Day) Act, 1910, shall only be deemed to be required to do duty on that day if he has been specifically ordered to do duty.

(3) If in the opinion of the chief officer of police the exigencies of duty do not permit the grant of time off under the preceding paragraph within such time (not exceeding three months) as he may fix, the member shall be granted in lieu of time off an allowance at the rate of three-sixteenths of one day's pay for each completed hour of duty on each such day, fractions of a penny being ignored.

(4) Every member of a police force of or above the rank of superintendent who is required to do duty on a public holiday shall be granted a day's leave in lieu of each such day unless the exigencies of duty do not permit such a grant within three months.

37. On any occasion or occasions of emergency within the meaning of the Police (Weekly Rest Day) Act, 1910, the Secretary of State may direct that the provisions of Regulations 34, 35 and 36 shall apply only to such extent and under such conditions as he may determine."

6.—(1) In Regulation 41 of the said Regulations for the words " under paragraph (1) of Regulation 39A " there shall be substituted the words " under Regulation 36 ".

(2) In the proviso to the said Regulation 41 the words " in pursuance of a notice of intention to retire " shall be omitted.

7. For Regulation 42 of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Regulation:—

" 42. Every member of a police force of or above the rank of superintendent shall, in addition to the days on which he is not required to do duty under Regulation 36, be granted in each calendar year so far as the exigencies of duty permit—

(a) 10 Edw. 7 & 1 Geo. 5 c. 13.

(a) annual leave of not less than forty-two days, with an additional six days after completing ten years' service in any such rank or ranks, and

(b) leave off from duty for one day and a half in each month:

Provided that in the calendar year in which the member retires he shall be granted so far as the exigencies of duty permit annual leave at the rate of one-twelfth of the annual leave to which he would be entitled under this Regulation for each complete month of service in that year, a fraction of a day being reckoned as a day."

8. The following Regulations shall be substituted for Regulations 47 to 51 and 53 to 63 of the said Regulations, except in so far as those Regulations are continued in force by Regulation 22 of these Regulations:—

"47.—(1) The rate of pay of a member of a police force holding—

(a) the rank of chief inspector or inspector, other than in the City of London police force or the metropolitan police force, station sergeant. sergeant, acting sergeant or constable shall be in accordance with the scale of pay for his rank set out in the Third Schedule hereto;

(b) any other rank shall be in accordance with a scale of pay which shall be determined by the Secretary of State.

(2) In calculating service for any of the aforesaid scales of pay—

(a) there shall be included any period which is included in the member's pensionable service within the meaning of the Police Pensions Regulations, 1949(a), by virtue of the fact that section one of the Police and Firemen (War Service) Act, 1939(b), applied to him;

(b) where the member is promoted and has less than two years before the date of promotion held the same rank on a temporary promotion thereto, there shall be included all service during any previous temporary promotion to that rank;

(c) where the member has been temporarily promoted and subsequently reverts to the rank he held immediately before he was temporarily promoted, he shall be deemed while holding that rank thereafter to have held, during the period of his temporary promotion, the rank to which he has so reverted;

(d) in the case of a constable, there shall be included any period of service as an auxiliary and any period of service in the Palestine police force;

(e) subject to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, service means service since the member's last appointment as a constable or service since the member's last promotion to the rank he holds, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Regulation shall affect the operation of the Regulations relating to discipline or of Regulation 52.

(4) No pensionable payments except those above referred to and pensionable payments approved by the Secretary of State to members of a police force for acting as deputy chief constable shall be made.

48.—(1) Members of a police force shall be paid at such intervals as the police authority may fix and the police authority may fix different intervals for different classes.

(2) In fixing the interval for any class the police authority shall have regard to the wishes of the members of that class.

(a) S.I. 1949 No. 1241, p. 3331 below. (b) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 103.

49.—(1) One month's pay shall be calculated for all purposes at the annual rate of pay divided by twelve, fractions of a penny being ignored.

(2) One week's pay shall be calculated for all purposes at the annual rate of pay divided by fifty-two and one-sixth, fractions of a penny being ignored.

(3) One day's pay shall be calculated for all purposes at the weekly rate of pay divided by six, fractions of a penny being ignored."

9.—(1) In paragraph (1) of Regulation 65 of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948(a), after the words "shall pay him a rent allowance" there shall be inserted the words "which shall be either a maximum limit allowance or a flat-rate allowance".

(2) For paragraph (2) of the said Regulation 65 there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(2) (a) A maximum limit allowance shall, subject to the maximum limit, be the aggregate of—

(i) where the member owns the house he occupies, an amount equal to one hundred and twenty-five per cent. of the gross annual value of the said house for income tax purposes, or

(ii) where the member is living in unfurnished accommodation, the amount paid in rent therefor, or

(iii) subject to sub-paragraph (a) (i) of this paragraph, where the member is living in furnished accommodation, an amount which in the opinion of the police authority would have been paid in rent therefor had the accommodation been unfurnished, and the amount paid in rates:

Provided that where part of the said house or part of the said accommodation is let to or occupied by a tenant or lodger, as the case may be, who is not a member of a police force, the police authority may make a deduction from the said aggregate in respect of such part.

(b) The maximum limit shall be fixed by the police authority with the approval of the Secretary of State for each rank.

(c) The flat-rate allowance shall be an allowance equal to half the amount fixed as the maximum limit for members of the same rank."

(3) In paragraph (3) of the said Regulation 65 for the words "A rent allowance at the married men's rate" there shall be substituted the words "A maximum limit allowance", and for the words "a rent allowance at the single men's rate" there shall be substituted the words "a flat-rate allowance".

(4) For sub-paragraph (a) (ii) of paragraph (4) of the said Regulation 65 there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph:—

"(ii) in relation to any other man, the maximum limit allowance which would for the time being be payable to him if he were still entitled to a maximum limit allowance and he were paying the aggregate calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of this Regulation which he was paying immediately before his wife commenced to live apart from him;".

10. Regulation 65A(b) of the said Regulations shall be continued until the thirty-first day of December, 1950, and accordingly in paragraph (5) of the said Regulation for the words "thirty-first day of December, 1949" there shall be substituted the words "thirty-first day of December, 1950".

(a) S.I. 1948 (No. 1216) I, p. 3370.

(b) See S.I. 1948 (No. 2734) I, p. 3401.

11. After Regulation 65B of the said Regulations there shall be inserted the following Regulation:—

"Transfer allowance

65C. A member of a police force who in the opinion of the chief officer of police is required to move his home by the exigencies of police duty otherwise than on transfer from one force to another shall have his removal expenses reimbursed and in addition shall be paid a transfer allowance of £5 and, if the cost actually and necessarily incurred in adapting his household furnishings in consequence of the said move exceeds £5, an additional allowance equal to the difference between the said cost and the said £5 subject to the maximum amount set out in the subjoined Table opposite to the rank he holds:—

Rank	Amount
Above the rank of Chief Superintendent	35
Chief Superintendent and Superintendent	25
Chief Inspector and Inspector	20
Station Sergeant, Sergeant, Acting Sergeant, Constable ...	15."

12. For Regulation 69 of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Regulation:—

"69.—(1) If the chief officer of police is satisfied that a member of a police force while engaged in detective duties is usually engaged in outside duty, that member shall be paid a detective duty allowance at the rate set out in the subjoined Table opposite to the rank he holds:—

TABLE

Rank	Amount
Inspector	£42 a year
Sergeant	£36 a year
Constable	£30 a year:

Provided that the allowance shall not be paid for a period of detective duty of less than one week.

(2) A member of a police force in receipt of an allowance under paragraph (1) shall also be paid a detective expenses allowance at the rate of 10s. 0d. a week.

(3) If immediately before the first day of July, 1949, the chief officer of police was satisfied that a member of a police force below the rank of superintendent was normally engaged in detective duty other than outside duty, that member shall, on making application to the chief officer of police before the first day of August, 1949, continue to receive the detective allowance which he was receiving immediately before the first day of July, 1949, until the chief officer of police is satisfied that he is no longer so engaged or until he is promoted and, so long as he receives the said allowance, he shall be treated for the purposes of these Regulations, other than Regulation 36 and paragraph (2) of this Regulation, as if he were paid a detective duty allowance."

13. For that part of paragraph (3) of Regulation 70 of the said Regulations which precedes the proviso there shall be substituted the following :—

" (3) The amount of the said allowances shall be according to the following scale :—

Description of Allowance	Superintendents	Inspectors	Sergeants and Constables
Refreshment Allowance—	s. d.	s. d.	s. d.
(i) for one meal	3 6	3 0	2 6
(ii) for two meals	5 0	4 6	4 0

(i) over 5 hours and not exceeding 8 hours	5 0	4 6	4 0
(ii) over 8 hours and not exceeding 12 hours	7 6	6 6	5 6
(iii) over 12 hours and not exceeding 24 hours	12 0	10 0	9 0
(iv) over 24 hours—at the rate under (iii) above for each complete period of 24 hours' retention or engagement, together with whichever is the appropriate amount under the preceding provisions of this scale for any excess over the aggregate of such complete periods.
Lodging Allowance—
For each night	18 0	14 0	12 0."

14. For Regulation 72 of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Regulation :—

" London allowance

72. Station sergeants, sergeants, acting sergeants and constables who are members of the City of London police force or the metropolitan police force shall be paid a London allowance at the rate of £10 a year."

15. In paragraph (2) of Regulation 73 of the said Regulations for the words " extended hours of police duty " there shall be substituted the word " overtime ".

16. For Regulation 74 of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Regulation :—

" 74. A member of a police force below the rank of superintendent, who is required for a continuous period exceeding one week to perform the duties of another member of the force holding a higher rank than his own either to fill a temporary vacancy or for some other special purpose, shall be granted in respect of such service after the said week an allowance in addition to his pay at a rate equal to the difference between his pay and the lowest rate of pay for that higher rank."

17. In Regulation 76 of the said Regulations for the words " extended hours of duty " there shall be substituted the word " overtime ".

18. In Regulation 77 of the said Regulations for the words " detective allowance or any other allowance " there shall be substituted the words " detective duty allowance, detective expenses allowance or any allowance ".

19.—(1) In paragraph (1) of Regulation 90 of the said Regulations after the words " under the Police Pensions Acts, 1921 and 1926 " there shall be inserted the words " or under Regulations made under the Police Pensions Act, 1948(a) ".

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 24.

(2) After paragraph (3) of the said Regulation 90 there shall be added the following paragraph:—

" (4) In these Regulations the expression ' public holiday ' means Christmas Day, Good Friday and bank holidays."

20.—(1) Paragraph (b) of Regulation 94 of the said Regulations shall be omitted.

(2) In paragraph (c) of the said Regulation 94 for the words " Regulations 68 to 72 " there shall be substituted the words " Regulations 68 to 71 ".

21.—(1) After the Second Schedule to the said Regulations there shall be added the Third Schedule set out in the Schedule hereto.

(2) The Third Schedule to the said Regulations shall be re-numbered " Fourth Schedule ", and for the words " Third Schedule " in paragraph (1) of Regulation 95 of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the words " Fourth Schedule ".

22. Notwithstanding Regulation 8 of these Regulations, the rate of pay of a member of a police force who is such a member on the first day of July, 1949, or on that date was serving in an overseas corps within the meaning of the Police Pensions Regulations, 1949(a), and who has not elected in accordance with Regulation 87 of those Regulations shall, subject to the provisions of this Regulation—

(a) if he holds the rank of sergeant or constable, be in accordance with Regulations 47 to 51 and 53 to 63 of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948(b), subject to the modification that one day's pay shall be calculated for all purposes at the weekly rate of pay divided by six ;

(b) if he holds any other rank, be in accordance with the scale of pay of his force approved by the Secretary of State under paragraph (2) of Regulation 47 of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948, and paragraph (2) of Regulation 27A of the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948, shall apply accordingly ; and, if the member has elected in accordance with the said Regulation 87, this Regulation shall cease to have effect in respect to him from whichever is the last of the following dates—

(i) one month before the date on which he has so elected, or

(ii) the first day of July, 1949, or

(iii) the date on which he last joined a police force:

Provided that—

(a) where the police authority are satisfied that a member of a police force who has elected in accordance with the said Regulation 87 would so have elected at an earlier date had he not been prevented from doing so by illness, absence from the United Kingdom or other special circumstances they may, in their discretion, increase the period of one month mentioned in sub-paragraph (i) above ;

(b) where on the date on which this Regulation ceased to have effect in respect to the member he was subject to a punishment imposing a reduction in his rate of pay, he shall for the remainder of the period of that punishment have the pay to which he would otherwise be entitled by virtue of the said Regulation 8 reduced by an amount equal to the amount by which his rate of pay has been reduced by that punishment.

23. Any reference in these Regulations other than in Regulation 22 to any Regulation in the Police (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948, shall be taken as referring to the last-mentioned Regulation as amended by any other Regulation.

(a) S.I. 1949 No. 1241, p. 3331 below. (b) S.I. 1948 (No. 1216) I, p. 3370.

24. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Consolidation) (Amendment) Regulations, 1949, and shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1949.

J. Chuter Ede,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation 3 deals with the counting of service for promotion. Regulation 5 deals with the calculation of overtime, with time off for such overtime and for duty on public holidays and weekly rest day and payment in lieu of such time off. Regulation 8 and the Schedule lay down increased rates of pay. Regulation 9 deals with rent allowance. Regulation 10 continues supplementary allowances for a further year. Regulation 11 makes provision for a transfer allowance where a member has to move his home. Regulation 12 deals with detective duty allowance and detective expenses allowance. Regulation 13 provides increased scales for certain subsistence allowances. Regulation 14 provides a London allowance for sergeants and constables of the City of London and metropolitan police forces. Regulation 16 deals with temporary duty allowance for performing the duties of a higher rank. Regulation 22 provides that the rates of pay prescribed by Regulation 8 do not apply to a member serving on the 1st July, 1949, until he has elected to have his pension calculated on pay averaged over a three-year period. The remaining Regulations are consequential on the foregoing.
