2. These Regulations may be cited as the Police Regulations, 1956, and shall come into operation on the thirteenth day of February, 1956.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
10th February, 1956.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Police Regulations, 1952, by increasing the rates of refreshment, subsistence and lodging allowances.

1956 No. 1556

The Police (No. 2) Regulations, 1956

Made - - - -	1st October, 1956
Coming into Operation	8th October, 1956

I, the Right Honourable Gwilym Lloyd-George, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Police Act, 1919(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) For paragraph (2) of Regulation 17 of the Police Regulations, 1952(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Regulations"), as set out in Regulation 1 of the Police Regulations, 1955(c), and amended by Regulation 1 of the Police (No. 2) Regulations, 1955(d), (which prescribes the rates of overtime allowance) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(2) If in respect of the overtime during any week time off is not granted within such time (not exceeding three months) after that week as the chief officer of police may fix, the member, if he is below the rank of inspector, shall be granted for each four units of overtime worked during that week for which time off has not been granted an allowance of one-sixth of one day's pay, fractions of a penny being ignored, and after the time so fixed any right to time off in respect of that week shall cease.".

(2) At the end of paragraph (4) of the said Regulation 17 there shall be added the following words:—

"one day's pay shall be calculated at the weekly rate of pay divided by five-and-a-half, fractions of a penny being ignored".

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 46.
(b) S.I. 1952/1704 (1952 II, p. 2480).
(c) S.I. 1955/882 (1955 II, p. 1874).
(d) S.I. 1955/1913 (1955 II, p. 1877).

2. At the end of paragraph (6) of Regulation 18 of the principal Regulations, as set out in Regulation 2 of the Police Regulations, 1955 (which relates to time off or an allowance in lieu thereof in respect of duty on a public holiday or rest day) there shall be added the following sub-paragraphs:—

"(f) a period of less than eight completed quarters of an hour of duty on a public holiday or on a day which would otherwise have been a rest day shall be treated as though it were a period of eight completed quarters of an hour of duty;

(g) where a member is recalled to duty after completing a tour of duty, his period of duty shall include the time occupied by him in going from and returning to his home on and after his recall, not exceeding such reasonable limit as may be fixed by the chief officer of police.".

3. In paragraph (3) of Regulation 25 of the principal Regulations (which relates to the calculation of one day's pay) for the words "Regulation 18" there shall be substituted the words "Regulation 17 or 18".

4. For paragraph (1) of Regulation 35 of the principal Regulations, as amended by Regulation 2 of the Police (No. 2) Regulations, 1955 (which prescribes the rates of detective duty allowance) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(1) If the chief officer of police is satisfied that a member of a police force below the rank of superintendent while engaged in detective duties is usually engaged in outside duty, that member shall be paid a detective duty allowance—

(a) in the case of a member holding one of the ranks specified in column 1 of the Table in this paragraph, other than a chief inspector or inspector in the City of London police force or the metropolitan police force, at the rate set out, if the member is a man, in column 2 or, if the member is a woman, in column 3 of the said Table opposite to the rank he or she holds;

(b) in any other case, at such rate as shall be determined by the Secretary of State:

Provided that the allowance shall not be paid for a period of detective duty of less than one week.

6. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (No. 2) Regulations, 1956, and shall come into operation on the eighth day of October, 1956.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
1st October, 1956.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which amend the Police Regulations, 1952, provide; in Regulation 1, for the rates of overtime allowance to be calculated by reference to pay; in Regulation 2, for a minimum period of time off or a minimum allowance in lieu thereof in respect of duty performed on a public holiday or rest day and for certain travelling time to be taken into account in calculating such time off or allowance; in Regulation 4, for increased rates of detective duty allowance; and, in Regulation 5, for an increased issue of certain items of uniform. Regulation 3 contains a consequential amendment.
