ENGLAND AND WALES

The Police (No. 3) Regulations, 1961

Made - - - - 21*st September*, 1961
Coming into Operation 9*th October*, 1961

I, the Right Honourable Richard Austen Butler, C.H., M.P., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Police Act, 1919(a), hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. After Regulation 40 of the Police Regulations, 1952(b), there shall be inserted the following Regulation :—

"Promotion examination allowance

40A.—(1) A constable who on or after the first day of January, 1961, has taken or takes an examination or paper in consequence of which he has obtained or obtains a pass in the qualifying examinations held under the Police (Promotion) Regulations, 1956(c), for promotion from constable to sergeant shall be paid by the police authority of the police force of which the constable was or is a member at the time when he took or takes the examination or paper, or, if the constable was or is at that time a member of the metropolitan police force, by the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District, a constable's promotion examination allowance of £30 unless he has previously obtained a pass, or been deemed to have obtained a pass, in the qualifying examinations held under the Police (Promotion) Regulations, 1956, or the Police (Promotion) Regulations, 1952(d), for promotion from constable to sergeant or has, while serving in a police force service in which may be reckonable at pensionable service for the purpose of Regulations made under the Police Pensions Acts, 1948 and 1961, received a payment for passing the examination which qualifies him for promotion from the rank of constable to that of sergeant in that police force.

(2) A sergeant who on or after the first day of January, 1961, has taken or takes an examination or paper in consequence of which he has obtained or obtains a pass in the qualifying examinations held under the Police (Promotion) Regulations, 1956, for promotion from sergeant to inspector shall be paid by the police authority of the police force of which the sergeant was or is a member at the time when he took or takes the examination or paper, or, if the sergeant was or is at that time a member of the metropolitan police force, by the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District, a sergeant's promotion examination allowance of £30 unless he has previously obtained a pass, or been deemed to have obtained a pass, in the qualifying examinations held under the
