EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Police Regulations, 1952.

Regulation 1 varies the method of computing the amount of overtime in the case of casual escort duty by including travelling time and permitting the chief officer of police to exclude a period not exceeding eight hours when the police officer is engaged overnight, has proper sleeping accommodation and is not in charge of the prisoner.

Regulation 2 replaces the existing Tables relating to issues of uniform with minor amendments.

1959 No. 2274

The Police (No. 4) Regulations, 1959

Made - - - - 28*th December,* 1959
Coming into Operation 1*st January,* 1960

I, the Right Honourable Richard Austen Butler, C.H., M.P., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Police Act, 1919(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. For Regulation 20 of the Police Regulations, 1952(b), as amended by Regulation 3 of the Police Regulations, 1955(c), (which prescribes the number of days annual leave to be granted to members of a police force below the rank of superintendent) there shall be substituted the following Regulation:—

"20.—(1) Every member of a police force below the rank of superintendent shall, so far as the exigencies of duty permit, be granted leave of absence (hereafter in these Regulations referred to as "annual leave") in addition to the days upon which he is not required to perform police duties in compliance with the Police (Weekly Rest Day) Act, 1910(d), or under Regulation 18 of these Regulations, so that a member shall be granted the following annual leave in each leave year:—

	Days
(a) Chief Inspector	25
Inspector	22
Sergeant	19
Constable	17

and,

(b) beginning with the next leave year which commences on or after the first day of January, 1960, an additional two days if the member has, in the case of a chief inspector or inspector five years' service, in the case of a sergeant seven years' service, or in the case of a constable fifteen years' service:

Provided that in the leave year in which the member is appointed and in that in which he retires he shall, so far as the exigencies of duty permit, be granted annual leave at the rate of one-twelfth of the number of days annual leave to which he is entitled under the foregoing provisions for each complete month of service in that leave year, a fraction of a day being reckoned as one day.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 46.
(b) S.I. 1952/1704 (1952 II, p. 2480).
(c) S.I. 1955/882 (1955 II, p. 1874).
(d) 10 Edw. 7 & 1 Geo. 5. c. 13.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation—

"leave year" means that period of twelve months beginning on such date as may from time to time be determined by the police authority;

"service" means service which is reckonable for the purposes of the member's rate of pay, other than service specified in sub-paragraph (d) of paragraph (2) of Regulation 23 of these Regulations.".

2. For the Table in Regulation 34 of the Police Regulations, 1952 (which relates to plain clothes allowances), there shall be substituted the following Table:—

"Table

Rank	Amount
Superintendent	£43 a year
Inspector	£40 a year
Sergeant	13s. 6d. a week
Constable	12s. 6d. a week"

3. In Regulation 40 of the said Regulations (which relates to temporary duty allowances) for the words "below the rank of superintendent" there shall be substituted the words "of or below the rank of superintendent, other than a member for the time being in receipt of a pensionable payment for acting as deputy chief officer of police under paragraph (4) of Regulation 23 of these Regulations".

4. In Regulation 49 of the said Regulations (which relates to sick leave) after the words "Provided that" there shall be inserted the following words:—

"(i) with the consent of the police authority a member may be so absent, without being so certified, for a period not exceeding three days on any occasion, excluding any day on which he would not have been required to perform police duty were he not so absent;

(ii)".

5. For paragraph (b) of Regulation 54 of the said Regulations, as amended by Regulation 7 of the Police Regulations, 1955, (which prescribes the number of days annual leave for certain ranks in the metropolitan police force) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(b) notwithstanding Regulation 20 of these Regulations, for station sergeants and first class sergeants (Criminal Investigation Department) the number of days annual leave shall be twenty-one and the number of years service required for the purposes of the additional two days leave specified in that Regulation shall be seven years in the rank of either station sergeant or first class sergeant (Criminal Investigation Department).".

6. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (No. 4) Regulations, 1959, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1960.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
28th December, 1959.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Police Regulations, 1952. Regulations 1 and 5 increase by two days the annual leave of a member of a police force below the rank of superintendent who has the prescribed number of years service. Regulation 2 increases the plain clothes allowance. Regulation 3 extends the temporary duty allowance to a superintendent other than a superintendent in receipt of a payment for acting as the deputy chief officer of police. Regulation 4 enables a police authority to grant uncertified sick leave for a period not exceeding three days.

1959 No. 747 (S. 31)

The Police (Scotland) Amendment Regulations, 1959

Made - - - -	17th April, 1959
Laid before Parliament	24th April, 1959
Coming into Operation	25th April, 1959

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 11 of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956(a) and section 1 of the Police, Fire and Probation Officers Remuneration Act, 1956(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Police (Scotland) Amendment Regulations, 1959; shall come into operation on the twenty-fifth day of April, 1959; and shall take effect as from the first day of April, 1959.

2. The Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1956(c), as amended(d), shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in the Schedule to these regulations.

Dated this seventeenth day of April, 1959.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

SCHEDULE

1. For paragraph (2) of Regulation 26 (which provides for overtime allowance) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(2) If in the case of a member being a sergeant or a constable time off in respect of his overtime during any week is not granted within such time (not exceeding three months) after that week as the chief constable may fix, the member shall be granted for each unit of overtime worked during that week for which time off has not been granted an allowance of one twenty-fourth of one day's pay, fractions of a penny being ignored, and after the time fixed as aforesaid the right of such member to time off in respect of that week shall cease."

(a) 4 & 5 Eliz. 2. c. 26. (b) 5 & 6 Eliz. 2. c. 1. (c) S.I. 1956/1999 (1956 II, p. 1766).
